ROJESTVENSKY ORDERED BY FRANCE TO "MOVE ON"

French Officials Say Russian Admiral Has Obeyed and Put to Sea.

JAPAN IS IRRITATED BY FRANCE'S CONDUCT

Indications Are That the Tension in Regard to Neutrality Is Greater Than Ever—Great Britain Gives Warning to France.

THERE are indications that French hospitality will not be taxed much longer by the Russian warships which have been hovering about the coast of Indo-China for nearly a month. Official advices have reached St. Petersburg which are believed to indicate that the division under Vice Admiral Nebogatoff has effected a junction with the more powerful squadron commanded by Vice Admiral Rojestvensky, and at the Russian capital it is expected that the combined squadrons will lose no time in steaming northward to encounter the Japanese.

Confirmation of St. Petersburg expectations is afforded by an official dispatch to the French naval officials announcing that the Russian squadron has left Kong-Hai bay, its destination being unknown. The bay named is probably what is shown on some maps as Kanh-Hoa or Nha Trang, which is a few miles south of Hon Kohe bay, where the Russian ships were recently reported to be. Simultaneously Japanese warships are reported to be concentrating in the straits of Korea, the scouting line being much extended.

There has been increasing feeling in Japanese official quarters regarding the way in which France has construed neutrality, and Great Britain's sympathy for her ally has been evidenced in communications that have passed between the British foreign secretary and the French ambassador in London, as well as between the British ambassador in Paris and Foreign Minister Delcasse.

PARIS, May 2.—An official dispatch was received here tonight saying that the Russian squadron had left Kong Hai (Kahnhoa or Nha Trang) bay. This follows the efforts of the French authorities to keep the squadron moving. Its destination is not given.

SAIGON, COCHIN CHINA, May 8. — Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron has been located by Admiral Se Jonquieres' intelligence department in the neighborhood of a bay southward of Hon Kohe bay, coast of Annam. Rojestvensky was warned and said he would leave immediately.

NEBOGATOFF'S SQUARDON APPROACHING SAIGON

Saigon, French Cochin China, May 8.—The Russian hospital ship Kostroma arrived here today, which indicates the approach of the fourth division of the Russian second Pacific squadron, commanded by Vice Admiral Nebogatoff. Sixteen freight laden steamers are off Cape St. James, near here. The main Russian squadron is said to be off the coast of Annam.

Hong Kong, May 8.—A special dispatch from Saigon, Cochin China, reports that Rear Admiral Nebogatoff's division has passed Saigon. A Russian cruiser was off Hon Konhe bay, a short distance north of Kamranh bay.

A British steamer noticed a collier leaving the bay and steaming east, but the main Russian squadron was not seen.

The British steamer Angola from Muroran, Japan, was stopped by a Japanese cruiser in the straits of Korea. After being question about her cargo and destination she was allowed to proceed.

JAPANESE SCOUT SHIPS WATCHING FOR RUSSIANS

Amony, China, May 8.—Vessels arriving here report having sighted Japanese warships between this port and Hong Kong.

Japanese ships appear off Amoy at night and undoubtedly are in communication through this place with the island of Formosa.

A Japanese line of scouts is reported here to be around the south of Formosa and another line of scouts is said to reach out into the Pacific from opposite Tamsui, in the northern part of Formosa.

JU TOY WILL BE BARRED.

Important Decision in a Chinese Exclusion Case.

Washington, May 8.—In the case of Ju Toy, the supreme court of the United States today held that the decision of the secretary of the deartment of commerce and labor is final in Chinese exclusion cases.

Ju is the son of Chinese parents, but claims to have been born in the United States. His exclusion was ordered after a temporary visit to China, and he took the case to the federal courts.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 9—Sensational rumors are current that there has been a three days massacre of Jews at Zhitomir, capital of the province of Volhynia, in southwestern Russia.

RUSSIANS ARE DRIVEN BY ARMIES OF OYAMA

St. Petersburg, May 8.—Interest is once more directed to Manchuria, the news from the front indicating that Field Marshal Oyama is pressing General Linevitch's advance posts east and west of the railroad with considerable force, as though about to undertake a general offensive movement. The Russians are offering slight resistance and are falling back upon their first line of defense.

The Russian advance post covers a front of about 100 miles, extending from Singtmantsu on the Liao river, in a southeasterly direction across the railroad above Changtu to the Mandarin road, leading to Kirin, to Kamal pass, about 70 miles due east of Tie pass. The Russian cavalry protects both wings, small bodies being probably beyond the Liao river in Mongolia, to guard against a surprise turning movement in that direction

To Cut Off Vladivostok.

Experts believe, however, that Oyama's purpose is to thrust in front the east, turn Kiron and interpose himself between Harbin and Vladivostok preparatory to the investment of the latter place. Linevitch's disposition seems especially taken to meet such a plan. He would not give battle along his present line, but would gradually retire and draw in his forces as Oyama's strategy develops, to the main Russian positions, which extend due east and west from Kirin, through Kuanchangtsu to Hualtaihamen. A considerable force of troops also is reported to be due east of Kirin as far south as the Tumen river to contest the Japanese advance northeastward toward Vladivostok.

It is not regarded as certain that the Japanese advance will really be serious. Oyama is known to have received large reinforcements, which have filled up the Japanese ranks, and he brought up immense quantities of supplies and ammunition after the battle of Mukden over the reconstructed Manchurian railroad.

Is Oyama in Earnest?

But at the war office here is a difference of opinion as to whether Oyama is yet ready and it is added that if he is in earnest probably almost a fortnight will elapse before the issue is decided, the preliminaries of each of the battles of the present war, in view of the fact that the armies cover such a large area, having always been long and tedious.

Up to yesterday the Russian advance posts generally had retired about 18 miles. If Oyama's offensive is pressed home a climax should be reached at about the time the fight between Admirals Rojestvensky and Togo is anticipated. General Linevitch's headquarters are at Gunshu pass.

JAPS THE SCOURGE OF GOD LIKE ATTILA AND NAPOLEON

---Kaiser William.

BERLIN, May 8.—The Evangelische Kircheon Zeitung today prints a detailed report of Emperor William's remarks when swearing in the naval recruits at Wilhelmshaven, on March 9, in which, according to the very brief report published at the time, he cited the Japanese as a luminous example of patriotism and soldierly fidelity. The Kircheon Zeitung's resume of the speech is as follows:

"The emperor referred to the heroic deeds of the Japanese, and added that these are born of Japanese patriotism and love for children, which in turn resulted in splendid discipline in army and navy. One must not, however, draw the conclusion from Japanese victories—victories of a heathen over a Christian people—that Buddha is superior to our Lord Christ. The Russians' defeat, in his opinion, was due to the fact that Russian Christianity was in a deplorable condition. The Japanese, on the other hand, could show many Christian virtues. A good Christian makes a good soldier. Among the German people, too, Christianity is in a sad condition, and he doubted whether we Germans, in case of war, would have the right to pray God for victory, to force it from Him like Jacob wrestling with the angel. The Japanese are the scourge of God, like Attila and Napoleon. It devolves upon us to take care that God does not chastise us some day with such a scourge."

LACK OF HARMONY AT OLD MERCER

Some Professors Dissatisfied With Action of Trustees.

Constitution Bureau, 467 Second Street, Macon, Ga., May 8.—(Special)—As a result of the action of the board of trustees of Mercer university here last Thursday, it is stated upon reliable information that three other strong members of the faculty are to resign before commencement in June. One of these resignations is already drawn.

It is charged that the board has demanded that all the members of the faculty shall be Baptists of the orthodox faith. Every member of the board has refused flatly to make statements concerning what was discussed in the meeting held for the stated purpose of electing a successor to Dr. P. D. Pollock, who has been in ill health for the past two years and unable to attend to any official duty. The board, instead of choosing a successor to Dr. Pollock, it is stated, went directly into a discussion of the beliefs which have been held among the members of the faculty. They made no specific charge against any member of the faculty, but took such action as has caused considerable dissatisfaction, and instead of one place, five are to be filled, unless present conditions change.

It has been generally conceded that the faculty at Mercer has been composed of strong men, fully abreast of the times and acquainted with modern university ideas, and the action of the board is considered a thrust at the teachings. Rumor says that the board has demanded preachers in some of the chairs, and it is now believed that they will make an attempt to fill the vacancies with such men.

The action taken at Thursday's meeting of the board has caused wide discussion. There are indications that members of the board have set foot on the policy of the faculty, and it is strongly asserted on all sides that the board will now demand that Baptists of the strictest belief shall serve as instructors. It means that the idea of a school of theology instead of a university is uppermost in the minds of members of the board, and people here believe that they will fight for this principle.

SILENT TONGUE COSTS HIM CASH

And Also Deprives Mr. Hale of His Liberty.

New York, May 8.—Judge Lacombe, in the United States supreme court today, announced that he will sign an order fining Edwin F. Sale, secretary of the McAndrews & Forbes Company, $5 for having refused to answer certain questions asked him in the investigation being made by the federal grand jury into the American Tobacco Company, and also an order committing Hale to the custody of the United States marshal until he purges himself of the contempt.

Among the questions which Hale refused to answer was one asking if any agreement or understanding or arrangement existed between the American Tobacco Company and the McAndrews & Forbes Company, in relation to the trade or business in licorice paste or mass affecting the business in the several states of the United States.

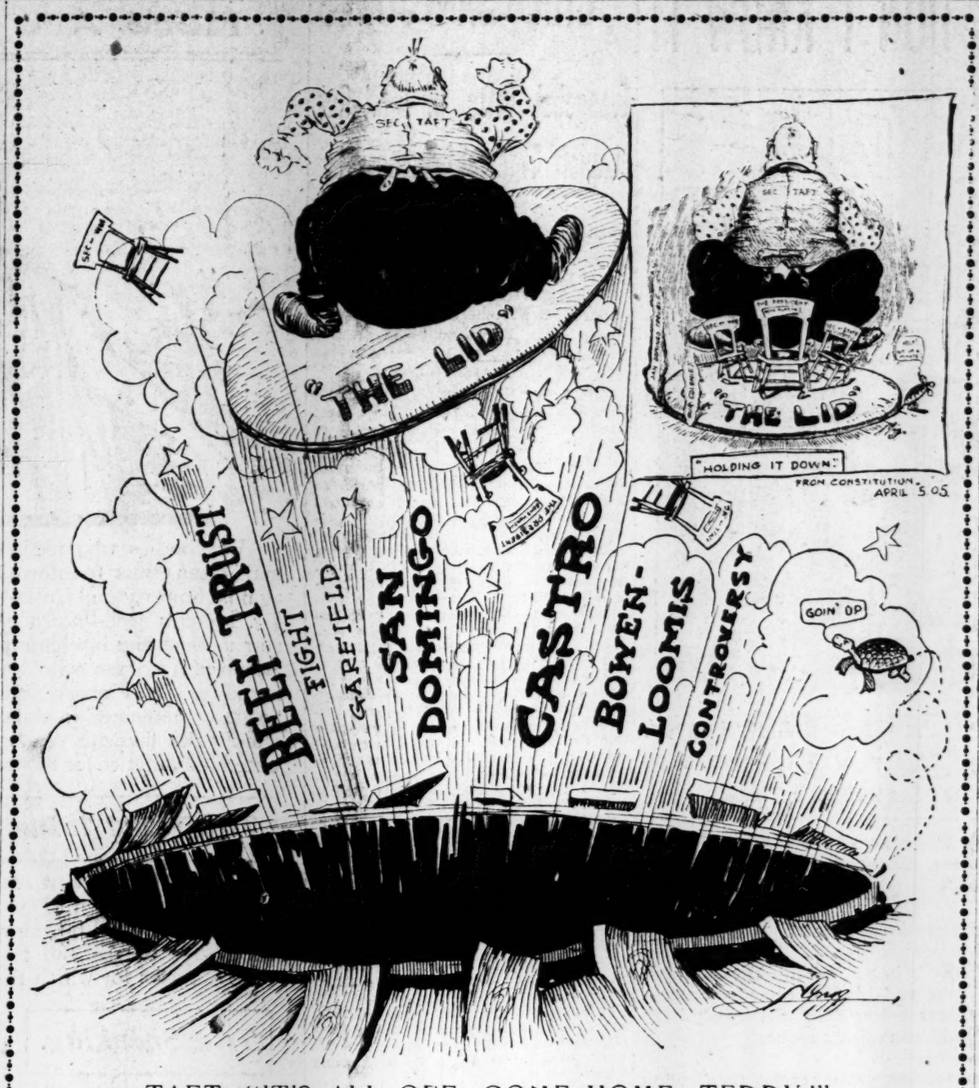

Mr. Hale had been asked before the grand jury to produce all letters, contracts, data and memoranda in his possession concerning the business of the McAndrews & Forbes Company, the J. S. Young Company, J. D. Lewis, National Licorice Company, American Licorice Company, the Stamford Manufacturing Company, Miller & Robinson, the Amsterdam Supply Company, American Tobacco Company, Continental Tobacco Company and the Consolidated Tobacco Company.

GRAVEL CAR RUNS AMUCK.

One Killed and Others Seriously Hurt in Nashville.

Nashville, Tenn., May 8.—A heavily loaded gravel car on the street railway here this afternoon became unmanageable and ran away down a steep hill, colliding with several vehicles.

John Chenault, an occupant of one of the vehicles, was instantly killed, and D. H. Campbell, the motorman of the runaway car, was probably fatally hurt. Bud Morgan, who was in one of the wagons, was badly hurt.

TAFT--"IT'S ALL OFF; COME HOME, TEDDY!"

THREE MEN FATALLY WOUNDED IN STRIKE RIOTS AT CHICAGO

Rioting Yesterday Was of a More Vicious Character Than on Saturday.

GUARDS WITH RIFLES WERE ON ALL WAGONS

Both Employers and the Strikers Claim Gains—No More Negroes Are Being Hired in Order To Allay the Race Feeling.

Chicago, May 8.—Both employers and strikers claim gains in the teamsters' strike today. The employers declare that they have gained a considerable average in the number of wagons sent out and the amount of business transacted. The strikers' claim is based on the fact that 250 drivers for the various furniture dealers in the city will strike tomorrow morning and also 150 paint workers employed by the Heath & Milligan Company.

The strike of the furniture dealers' drivers was foreshadowed on Saturday, when at a convention of the Furniture Dealers' Association it was declared that their men must make deliveries irrespective of strike orders. They today ordered their men to carry goods to the boycotted houses, and the strike tomorrow will be the result. The paint workers of Heath & Milligan are the first members of any union not a member of the teamsters' organization to go on strike in support of the teamsters. They have walked out because of the delivery of goods by non-union teamsters.

All Wagons Guarded.

The State street department stores and large dry goods houses sent out nearly their complement of delivery wagons this morning, and throughout the day transacted business on almost a normal basis.

On the wagons of Carson, Piere, Scott & Co. ample preparations were made for possible trouble.

All of their wagons were guarded by at least two representatives of the law, either police officers in buggies or deputy sheriffs, the latter being in all cases armed with rifles. The deputies sat in the rear of the wagons and held their guns in positions to use at the first sign of disturbance. The big department store of Rotschild & Co. for the first time since the strike loaded their wagons this morning, using policemen and deputy sheriffs for protection. When it was found that they could not be supplied with the necessary number of deputies, numbers of their employees were sworn in by the sheriff. This procedure was adopted by many of the houses, and the sheriff by night had 1,150 deputies at work.

Fifteen hundred wagons, manned by non-union men, were operated from State street today, and the number will be materially increased tomorrow. No more colored men are being hired, either by the State street stores or by the Employers' Teaming Company, and as rapidly as possible those now at work are being supplanted by white men.

Rioting Was Sharp.

The rioting today was of a sharper character than that of Saturday. Three men were fatally injured and a number

NAN PATTERSON STAYS IN TOMBS

Jerome Hasn't Reached Decision in Regard to Bail.

Two Bondsmen Are Ready To Put Up Any Reasonable Amount—A Threatening Letter Sent to Nan's Mother at Washington.

New York, May 8.—Nan Patterson's future is still uncertain. Bail has been provided for her, but District Attorney Jerome has not yet decided what action he will take in her case.

This afternoon, after a long conference with Mr. Jerome and his assistant, Mr. Rand, Miss Patterson's counsel was compelled to bear to the girl in the Tombs the disappointing news that she may have to remain in prison for at least a week longer.

The prisoner bore the announcement with fortitude, although she had been led to believe that she might be granted her freedom either today or tomorrow.

Two Bondsmen Ready.

At least two bondsmen are said to be ready to give bail in any reasonable amount and counsel for Miss Patterson say the surety will be provided without delay as soon as the district attorney expresses a willingness to accept it.

Mr. Jerome issued the following statement:

"In reference to the case of the people against Nan Patterson, I am unwilling to make any statement other than this: My information in regard to the case presents a serious question for my decision and one which I must decide myself and not permit the newspapers to decide for me. I have not yet decided it."

Abraham Levy, Miss Patterson's counsel, said after the conference:

"I have talked with Mr. Jerome and Mr. Rand. Mr. Jerome promised that he would take up the matter at the earliest possible moment and give it his fullest attention. He will then let us know what his course will be. I am bound, until he disposes of the matter, to take no further action and will not make any move until that time. Mr. Jerome has now to decide whether to admit her to bail; discharge her, on her own recognizance; dismiss the indictment against her, or again place her on trial. I have no doubt that Mr. Jerome will speedily decide."

Nan's Life Threatened.

Lawyer Abraham Levy, of Miss Patterson's counsel, received a letter which had been sent in the mail to Mrs. J. B. Patterson, Nan Patterson's mother, in Washington, D. C., in which Miss Patterson's life was threatened. The letter says in part:

"I am sorry to cause you some pain, but you will not see Nan. Although she cheated justice of the law, she has more to deal with, and she will never go far away from the Tombs. I am the victim of another such a woman as your daughter and not only has my money gone, but I am slowly dying. Wednesday night, if the jury acquitted Nan, I could have shot her as she left the Tombs. If she was convicted I could have committed suicide, as I have wished to for the last ten months. But my name will be famous yet as a lover of justice. The American people shall know that one man had the courage to avenge Young's murder. I write this so you will know that I am in no way connected with Young's friend. Yours in death, ARMEDDI BEAUPARTAR."

KILLED HIS WIFE, HANGED HIMSELF

Lum Walker, of Mansfield, Attempts Double Crime.

After Sending the Contents of His Shotgun Into Mrs. Walker, Husband Tries Suicide Unsuccessfully—Slayer Is in Jail.

Covington, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Sheriff Sam Hay and Coroner Joe Peek returned this afternoon from Mansfield with Lum Walker, the alleged slayer of his wife, and placed him in the county jail, awaiting a preliminary trial, probably Wednesday or Thursday.

The verdict of the coroner's jury finds that Mrs. Lum Walker came to her death from wounds inflicted by a knife and gun in the hands of her husband, Lum Walker, and that either one of the wounds would have produced immediate death.

Although he refuses to discuss the unfortunate tragedy, Walker talks about other maters in a manner which indicates that his mind is rational.

Story of the Killing.

Lum Walker, a well-known white farmer, shot and killed his wife, Mrs. Lula Walker, about 4 o'clock this morning.

Shortly before day Walker arose from bed, dressed, procured his double barreled shotgun and returning within a few feet of the bed, emptied the contents of one barrel of the gun into his wife's body, the entire load entering the spinal column and passing upward through the lungs. The woman died before medical assistance could be secured.

Walker then, failing in an effort to kill himself with the other load in the gun, ran out into his barn and attempted to hang himself. By this time, however, the three children who were occupying other parts of the house, had been aroused, and the elder son, seventeen or eighteen years old, ran out and cut the rope and let his father down before strangulation ensued.

Before 7 o'clock the entire community had heard of the affair and were flocking in great numbers to the scene of the crime.

Walker is 54 years old and his wife was in her fiftieth year. She was a member of the Primitive Baptist church. They have six children, three of them married.

It is said that the age dcouple had not been getting along very well together in recent years, though it was not known that any trouble of a serious nature had existed.

Reported Compromise Offered.

Montgomery, Ala., May 8.—(Special.)—The Diamond Match Company has offered to compromise the suits recently brought by the state for $25,000, it is reported The action was brought for damages for doing business in the state before complying with the corporation laws.

BATTLE SHIPS BREAST WAVES IN OCEAN RACE

Seven Great Vessels of United States Navy in Heart-Breaking Speed Test.

UNDER FORCED DRAUGHT MISSOURI WINS RACE

Alabama and Massachusetts Made Poor Showing, Though Formerly Is Reported One of the Fastest Ships—Strain Told on All Ships.

New York, May 8.—News of an eight-hour ocean race, in which seven big United States battle ships participated, was brought here today by the battle ship Alabama, which arrived in command of Rear Admiral Charles H. Davis, and will go to the navy yard to be overhauled because of the poor showing which she made in the contest.

The ships were coming up the coast last Saturday, and were about 200 miles south of Cape Henry, when the word was given for a speed test. For two hours it was nip and tuck, there being scarcely a change in the relative position of the participants. By that time excitement was running high on board the battle ships, and the speed contest had developed into a race. Finally the Massachusetts and the Alabama began to fall behind, and when the signal ending the race was flashed, both these ships were far in the rear. The Alabama, which had the record of being one of the fastest battle ships in the navy, was fully a mile and a half behind the Massachusetts.

At the finish the battle ship Missouri, which had drawn away from the others, was only 73 1-2 miles south of Cape Henry, having covered 126 1-2 miles in the eight hours.

During the last six hours of the race the battle ships were under forced draught, and all suffered more or less from the strain to which they were subjected. With the exception of the Alabama all the vessels went to Hampton roads.

Battle Ships Need Repairs.

Norfolk, Va., May 8.—The United States battle ship Maine (flagship), Kearsarge, Kentucky and Missouri, comprising the first division of the Atlantic coast battle ship squadron, in command of Rear Admiral R. D. Evans, and the battle ship squadron, which are in Hampton Roads, will, with the exception of the Iowa, all proceed north for decking and slight repairs. The Maine will be docked at New York, June 20; Missouri at Boston, June 21; Kearsarge at New York, June 21; Kentucky at New York, June 13; Illinois at Boston, June 7. The Iowa will come to Norfolk for repairs, afterwards going to Boston to be docked, June 14.

THE WEATHER.

Washington, May 8.—Forecast for Tuesday and Wednesday:

Georgia: Partly cloudy Tuesday and Wednesday, with occasional showers and thunder storms; light to fresh southwest winds.

Tennessee: Fair Tuesday; Wednesday showers and cooler.

North Carolina, South Carolina and eastern Florida: Partly cloudy Tuesday and Wednesday with occasional showers and thunderstorms, light to fresh southwest winds.

Western Texas: Fair in south, showers and thunder storms in north portion, cooler Tuesday; Wednesday fair.

Eastern Texas: Showers and thunder storms Tuesday; Wednesday fair, colder in west portions, fresh southeast winds increasing.

THOUSANDS HAVE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND DON'T KNOW IT

To Prove what Swamp-Root, the Great Kidney Remedy, will do for YOU, Every Reader of The Constitution May Have a Sample Bottle Sent Free by Mail.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for more sickness and suffering than any other disease, therefore, when through neglect or other causes, kidney trouble is permitted to continue, fatal results are sure to follow.

Your other organs may need attention—but your kidneys most, because they do most and need attention first.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because as soon as your kidneys begin to get better they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root will set your whole system right, and the best proof of this is a trial.

53 COTTAGE ST., MELROSE, MASS.
JAN. 11th, 1904.

DEAR SIR: "Ever since I was in the Army, I had more or less kidney trouble, and within the past year it became so severe and complicated that I suffered everything and was much alarmed—my strength and power was fast leaving me. I saw an advertisement of Swamp-Root and wrote asking for advice. I began the use of the medicine and noted a decided improvement after taking Swamp-Root only a short time.

I continued its use and am thankful to say that I am entirely cured and strong. In order to be very sure about this, I had a doctor examine some of my water today and he pronounced it all right and in splendid condition.

I know that your Swamp-Root is purely vegetable and does not contain any harmful drugs. Thanking you for my complete recovery and recommending Swamp-Root to all sufferers, I am." Very truly yours,
I. C. RICHARDSON.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything, but it promptly cures kidney, liver and bladder troubles, the symptoms of which are—obliged to pass your water frequently night and day, smarting or irritation in passing, brickdust or sediment in the urine, headache, backache, lame back, dizziness, poor digestion, sleeplessness, nervousness, heart disturbance due to bad kidney trouble, skin eruptions from bad blood, neuralgia, rheumatism, diabetes, bloating, irritability, worn-out feeling, lack of ambition, loss of flesh, sallow complexion, or Bright's disease.

If your water, when allowed to remain undisturbed in a glass or bottle for twenty-four hours, forms a sediment or settling or has a cloudy appearance, it is evidence that your kidneys and bladder need immediate attention.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is for sale at drug stores the world over in bottles of two sizes and two prices—fifty cents and one dollar. Remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

EDITORIAL NOTE.—In order to prove the wonderful merits of Swamp-Root you may have a sample bottle and a book of valuable information, both sent absolutely free by mail. The book contains many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women cured. The value and success of Swamp-Root are so well known that our readers are advised to send for a sample bottle. In sending your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure to say you read this generous offer in The Atlanta Daily Constitution. The genuineness of this offer is guaranteed.

BALK SPENT THOUSANDS IN LITIGATION OVER $180

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The supreme court of the United States today decided the case of Harris v. Balk, involving $180, which has been in litigation for nine years, and three times decided by the supreme court of the state of North Carolina. In 1896 Balk loaned Harris $180. Both are citizens of North Carolina, but when Harris visited Baltimore he was compelled by the Maryland courts to pay the money to one Eppstein, to whom Balk was indebted. The North Carolina courts refused to recognize this payment, and Harris brought the case to the supreme court of the United States with a successful result, the court holding that the refusal is a failure to give due faith and credit to the findings of the courts of another state as required by the federal constitution. The litigation has cost many times more than the amount involved. Justice Peckham delivered the opinion of the court and Justices Harlan and Day dissented.

MRS. ROGERS IS CHAPERON FOR SPONSORS AND MAIDS

BARNESVILLE, GA., May 8.—(Special.)—Mrs. Loula K. Rogers, of this city, has been appointed chaperon for the sponsors and maids of honor of the North Georgia bridgade, United Confederate Veterans, which will go to the confederate reunion in Louisville, Ky., June 14.

The North Georgia brigade is composed of fifty-two camps. The appointment of Mrs. Rogers was made by Andrew J. West, brigadier general, commanding the North Georgia brigade.

Mrs. Loula K. Rogers is the daughter of a distinguished confederate officer, and is president of the Barnesville chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. Rogers will attend the reunion and has accepted the appointment.

WAKE THE SNAKES, CRIES SAM JONES

Discusses Ordinance Passed by That Town Against Jug Trade and Says That Mandamus Means "Men Damned, Women Crushed, Children Beggared."

Loganville, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Rev. Sam Jones closed yesterday a most wonderful four days' meeting here. At the 11:00 o'clock hour he turned aside for a few minutes and spoke to the great audience concerning the Lawrenceville ordinance which levies a tax of $1,000 upon common carriers for the privilege of bringing liquor into the town.

Speaking of this municipal ordinance and of the efforts being made through resort to the courts to nullify its effect, he said:

"Has a decent, sober community no right to protect itself? The people have voted liquor out of that town and county and can get no revenue from the traffic. Shall the damnable, greedy old liquor dealers of Atlanta continue to debauch their citizens, make criminals and paupers for them to take care of in order that the liquor men may feed their greed and fatten their pockets? If the constitution of Georgia says that is right, then I have no respect for the infamous old rag you call your constitution."

Continuing, he said: "If I was a judge, I would resign my office before I would render a decision that would open up the flood gates for their old rot-gut liquor upon a decent and unwilling people. The good people of Georgia are going to stop this jug trade, or by popular vote, put the liquor gang out of business in Georgia.

"A mandamus on this line means men damned, women crushed and children beggared.

"I appeal to every dry town in Georgia to pass this ordinance. Let's wake the snakes on this line and keep the liquor gang in the courts for a thousand years.

"The common carriers are not fighting the ordinance; they abide by it. But the liquor dealers say that it interferes with their business and cuts off their revenue."

New Methodist Church.

At the night meeting steps were taken toward raising a $4,000 fund for a new Methodist church. The total of subscriptions last night reached $3,200, and there is no doubt but the full amount for a handsome new edifice will immediately be raised.

The Sam Jones meetings have been marvelously successful here. Since they began some weeks ago the town has been practically revolutionized.

RIVERDALE CASE GIVEN QUIETUS

Final Decision by Supreme Court of United States.

Suit Involved Manufacturing Property at West Point—Question of Citizenship in Georgia or Alabama Was Involved.

Washington, May 8.—The supreme court of the United States today decided the complicated case of the Riverdale Cotton Company v. the Alabama and Georgia Manufacturing Company and the Huguely Manufacturing Company. The case arose out of a controversy as to which of the states, Georgia and Alabama, the companies are citizens.

The Huguely company is the successor of the Alabama and Georgia company, which was organized in 1866 to do a manufacturing business on the Chattahoochee river, constituting the boundary line between the two states. Incorporation papers were first taken out in Alabama and then in Georgia and property was owned in both states. The business office was stated to be in Georgia.

The litigation arose over a note for $60,000 given in 1884. After ten years litigation in Georgia the defendants instituted proceedings of their own in Alabama, claiming citizenship there and denying the jurisdiction of the Georgia courts. The Riverdale company, which had acquired the property, filed a bill in the circuit court for the northern district of Georgia to restrain the prosecution of the Alabama case. That court granted an injunction, but the court of appeals for the fifth circuit reversed the finding and ordered the circuit court to dismiss the bill.

Today's decision, which was announced by Justice Brewer, upheld the circuit court and reversed the court of appeals.

"Evidently," he said, "this defense springing from the existence of two corporations was an after thought when all other resources had failed and equity may well say that to sustain the present contention would give judicial sanction to inexcusable trifling with courts. It is always to be understood that federal tribunals are not moot courts and that parties having substantial rights must, when brought into court, present those rights or they may lose them."

CAPT. BALL'S DAUGHTER DIES.

Death of Lillie May Ball Occurred This Morning After Illness of Five Weeks.

Lillie May Ball, the daughter of Captain and Mrs. John W. Ball, died early this morning at the residence, 191 Fowler street, at 1 o'clock, after an illness of five weeks with typhoid fever.

The little girl was 13 years old. She was a member of the North Avenue Presbyterian church, and went to Williams street school. The funeral services have not yet been announced.

BUSYBODIES VS. TRUTH.

Here Are The Facts. Judge For Yourself.

Busybodies who see in success only falsity, who, without making an effort to inform themselves, blatantly cry offense against honesty and truth—seem to forget that a slur against Dr. Pierce's well-known non-alcoholic family remedies is a slur against the intelligence of thousands of clear-thinking American women who know they have been helped and cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is not a "patent medicine" in the true meaning of the word—it is simply the favorite remedy which Dr. Pierce used in an extended practice for the treatment of the diseases of women.

Truth and Influence. A name for honesty and square dealing is better than great riches. Fraud is a bubble that soon bursts. Dr. R. V. Pierce has always been known to speak the truth—his famous medicines are founded on the rock of public approval and have thousands of truthful testimonials as to their ability to cure diseases for which they are recommended.

True Speaking. No man ever lost a prospective customer through telling the truth. In the long run Dr. Pierce believes the truth will prevail and he is therefore not afraid to make public his formula.

Valuable Trade Secrets. The ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription are here given to the public. He vindicates the excellence and harmless character of his "Prescription" by letting the sick and ailing women know just what they are taking when they use this reliable tonic and nervine for the diseases and illnesses peculiarly feminine. These ingredients are combined in just the right proportion to make an efficient remedy without the use of a particle of alcohol.

LADY'S SLIPPER (Cypripedium Pubescens): ℞
BLACK COHOSH (Cimicifuga Racemosa):
UNICORN ROOT (Chamælirium Luteum):
BLUE COHOSH (Caulophyllum Thalictroides):
GOLDEN SEAL (Hydrastis Canadensis):

Nature's Way. King's American Dispensatory says of BLUE COHOSH (Caulophyllum): "This remedy is most valuable to relieve irritation of the organs in debilitated patients. It has an established reputation as a remedy for nervous excitement due to those disorders peculiar to women as well as for the relief of pain, with fullness, weight and pain in the legs, debility, crampy pains, etc."

"Golden Seal is very useful in catarrhal states of the mucous membranes."

"Black Cohosh or Black Snake-root—Our early American Indians set a high value on in the diseases of women. It is surpassed by no other drug in congestive conditions of the parts where there are dragging pains and tenderness."

Lady's Slipper is "nerve stimulant and tonic, improving both circulation and nutrition of the nerve centers—favoring sleep and cheerful condition of the mind; of service in mental depression, nervous headache, irregularities of women with despondency."

All Women. Women should know that this "Prescription" promptly heals inflammation and ulceration, stops weakening drains and restores the health and vigor of youth. It fits for wifehood and prepares for motherhood. It banishes morning sickness and other discomforts of ante-maternity. It makes "fresh, vigorous women." Read what one woman out of many thousands has said about the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce:

Truth Speaks. "I suffered for more than seven years with a complicated form of female trouble accompanied with nervous prostration. I wrote to Dr. Pierce, followed his instructions, took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and now feel grateful to him for my restoration to health. I have, within the past fifteen years, suggested and recommended Dr. Pierce's treatment to hundreds of ladies with grand results," writes Mrs. H. Harrison of 112 West Second Street, Sioux City, Iowa.

DONAVAN'S WILL TO BE CONTESTED

Sister in Law Alleges He Was of Unsound Mind.

John A. Donavan Will, Filed Yesterday, Leaves $40,000 to His Sister, but Was Met by Caveat and Hearing Will Result.

With the will of John A. Donavan, which was probated in common form yesterday morning, was filed a caveat, and it is probably the beginning of what will be one of the interesting will cases of the year.

The caveat was filed by Dorsey, Brewster & Howell, of Atlanta, for Mrs. Charles R. White, of LaGrange, a sister in law of the deceased, at whose home Mr. Donavan died about two weeks ago.

Pending the petition to probate the will in solemn form, Peter F. Clarke, of Atlanta, was named by Judge John K. Wilkinson as temporary administrator, and the hearing upon both petition and the caveat was set for Monday, June 12.

The will was brought to Atlanta yesterday morning by Judge F. M. Longley, of LaGrange. It names Mr. Clarke and the sister of the deceased, Mrs. Annie Terry, of Columbia, S. C., as joint administrator and administratrix. It disposes of about $40,000 of property, $30,000 of which is in stocks and bonds, while $10,000 is in life insurance of Mr. Donavan, $5,000 in the Washington Life, $3,000 in the Mutual Benefit of Newark, and $2,000 in the Mutual Life of New York.

The will leaves $500 to Mrs. John Ware, of LaGrange, a sister in law of the deceased, and the remainder of the property, without reserve, to Mrs. Terry, of Columbia, the sister.

The caveat to the will alleges that at the time the will was made, which was only a few days before the death of Mr. Donavan, he was not in sound mind or in condition to make a proper will.

Mr. Donavan was a well-known man. He was for twenty-five years the representative of the R. G. Dun mercantile agency, but was in ill health for several years prior tot his death, and lived upon his income.

DOCTOR'S FOOD

For His Family and Patients.

A surgeon and physician of Reedsville, Pa., has found Grape-Nuts so nourishing and strengthening that he uses it as a supporting medium after operations. He says:

"As a physician I take great pleasure in using Grape-Nuts in my family and also recommend it to my patients where a good strengthening food is required.

"I find it particularly valuable in convalescence from run down and depressed conditions. It also does well as a supporting medium after surgical operations.

"The fact that it is pre-digested makes it an ideal food for sufferers from indigestion and dyspeptic conditions. With the high quality of the food maintained, as has always been the case, I consider it an ideal food for most all conditions." Name given by Postum Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason.

TECH M. E.'S ORGANIZE NOTABLE BURNS CLUB

IT is going to be well worth the price of admission when the present senior class of the Georgia School of Technology graduates just to see the whiskers. Each of the eleven men who will receive diplomas in mechanical engineering will be wearing sideburns of more or less development, and one of the members of the faculty, Professor J. S. Coon, will be similarly adorned.

The Burns Club at the Tech was organized some two weeks ago.

It seems that the eleven seniors in mechanical egineering, having decided to permit the growth of their sideburns, did so upon the following conditions, which were announced upon a blackboard in the recitation room of Professor Coon:

"The senior who removes his sideburns before he receives his diploma will be required to pay for a class dinner at one of the Atlanta hotels the day of commencement exercises.

"The senior whose sideburns show the least growth on commencement day will be required tot pay for the class dinner. By "least growth" is meant length and not numbers.

"A committee of three, to be chosen from the faculty, will be requested to decide whose sideburns entitle him to pay for the dinner. One member of the committee is to be an expert in microscopic investigation, as such work will probably be necessary in some instances."

These statements attracted the attention of Professor Coon, and at the close of his hour he announced to the eleven seniors in mechanical engineering that he would take pleasure in poining them in the experiment.

It may be that some of the eleven will not live to receive their diplomas. Already there have been some narrow escapes.

Only last Friday, while calmly proceeding to the school, the while thinking of his day's work and of the step he was about to take from youth to manhood, one senior was chased by a hungry cow, whose appetite grew beyond bounds when he beheld what she believed to be hay.

Some Narrow Escapes.

Another senior has been driven from his boarding house, and is now homeless in the city because his whiskers scratched the furniture.

There is another story of a senior whose whiskers vibrate with fear every time he passes a lawn mower, but to be perfectly truthful, the anecdote is not believed.

Certain it is, however, that any senior who fails at once to secure a place as engineer, will have a perfect cinch in obtaining a position as butler in any well regulated family that can afford the price.

It will be necessary to see the sideburns on commencement day if they are to be viewed to their best advantage, because an enterprising barber of Atlanta has already offered to remove the twelve sets at reduced prices the day after the diplomas are received.

ELMORE JOHNSON ON TRIAL.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 8.—The trial of Elmore Johnson, charged with the murder of Price Broyles sixteen years ago, was begun in the criminal court today. Broyles was shot and killed in the union depot. Johnson escaped and nothing was heard of him until last November, when he approached a policeman on the streets of Jonesboro, Ark., and asked that he be taken into custody. A few days later he cut his throat while in jail, and for several weeks hovered between life and death.

BOARD WORKS IN SECRET SESSION

After holding the regular session last night, the police board held a lengthy secret session, from which all except the chief and his private secretary were excluded.

Station Sergeant W. P. Manly was placed as a street sergeant, and Street Sergeant Manier was appointed station sergeant. Members of the board stated that they had been informed by the chief that Sergeant Manly could not attend properly to the duties of the office of station sergeant. Sergeant Manly's health is not good and he desired a change, as the position of station sergeant was too confing.

The board decided to place the matter in the hands of Chief Jennings, with power to act, and he removed Sergeant Manly from the office and appointed Sergeant Manier in his place.

Patrolman A. T. Moss was suspended for sixty days for drinking while off duty. He pleaded guilty and said he was sick and drank a few glasses of beer.

Patrolman W. J. Butledge was discharged from the force for drinking while on duty on Memorial day.

Patrolman George Phillips was suspended for ten days for failing to obey an order from Chairman Nunnally. The chairman stated that he saw a negro girl buying whisky from a saloon and he met Phillips in front of the barracks and told him to go at once and investigate. The officer went after other officers to make the case, and the girl got away. Phillips admitted that he was a little too "slow," and asked that he be dealt with as lightly as possible.

THREE MEN SHOT IN CHICAGO RIOT

of others badly hurt, although the number of the injured is not nearly so large as on some of the days the middle of last week.

The fatally hurt:

JOHN FRUEN, stabbed by a colored man, who resented the epithet of strike breaker.

Others injured are:

Wade Crowder, colored teamster, assaultde by mob and beaten about the face and head in an alley back of the Olympic theater.

John Pitkin, colored, teamster, cut about the head at the same time and place.

Emil Kimber, union teamster, shot in the arm during a saloon row over the strike.

The majority of the affrays occurred during the early part of the afternoon. Enbers was shot tonight by O'Day, a colored teamster. O'Day was driving south in the alley west of Stewart avenue, between Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth streets, when he was attacked by Enbers, who struck him with a heavy stone. O'Day drew a revolver and fired twice. Both bullets took effect in Enber's body. O'Day was arrested. The Hansen Alcock company, O'Day's employers, are not involved in the teamster's strike and there was no occasion for Enber's attack.

ONE WIFE TURNS ON BLUEBEARD

Hoch Is Faced by a Woman He Deserted.

Mrs. Fscher-Hoch Goes on Stand at Chicago To Give Evidence Against the Man Who Deceived Her Into Marriage.

Chicago, May 8.—A novel occurrence in criminal procedure was witnessed today at the trial of the alleged "Bluebeard" Johann Hoch. The innovation consisted in a "wife" appearing as a witness in a case involving her "husband," the woman being Mrs. Fischer-Hoch, the last survivor of the alleged wives of Hoch.

Mrs. Fischer-Hoch, after identifying a bank book that she had used and saying that Hoch had asked her to withdraw her money from bank and turn the proceeds over to him to pay for his house, told of going to her home with Hoch. When they got to the house they were met at the door by Mrs Saurbocck, who said:

"Don't go in there, Mr. Hoch. Mrs. Sohn is here and she says Hoch murdered your sister."

"What did you say?" asked the prosecutor.

"I looked at Hoch and said, 'What are you changing color for? If you haven't done wrong you should not be afraid.'"

"Then what did Hoch say?"

"Why, Hoch said nothing but sat down on the bed. I insisted upon his coming into the other room where Mrs. Sohn was, but he refused, so I went away. I did not see Hoch again till I saw him at the police station."

Mrs. Fischer occupied the witness chair the entire afternoon. She narrated in detail the flirtations carried on by Hoch wih her while Mrs. Welcker-Hoch lay dying. The witness told of Hoch giving her a photograph and asking that she give him her picture in return, saying that he was going to wear it next to his breast.

"He told me," said the witness, "that I should stick to him and I would be a lucky woman. He said he had heard that I was a good business woman, and he told me that he was a good business man. He promised to stick to me if I would stick to him."

"What reply did you make?" asked State's Attorney Olsen.

"I reminded him that my sister was not yet buried, and that her body was at that moment lying in the front parlor, and that I was no time for him to talk to me in that manner. He declared that the dead were for the dead, and the living for the living, and that his talking to me at that time did not makt any difference."

Mrs. Fischer concluded her testimony for the day by stating that she had seen Hoch giving her sister a light colored powder in some water two days before her death. Mrs. Fischer will be on the stand again tomorrow.

REDDING FEELS VERY HOPEFUL

Head of W. A. Doody Company Talks of Situation.

He Hopes That Matters Will Be Adjusted Without Entering the Courts — The New York Creditors Seem Disposed To Be Severe.

Macon, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—President James T. Redding, of the W. A. Doody Company, today stated the members of the firm now have strong hopes of pulling through without entering the courts.

Developments have not changed the situation further than to give the parties interested more hopes of the settlement of heavy debts without entering the courts.

The creditors in New York have been severe in their terms of settlement, and in some instances satisfactory arrangements have not been made.

The stores here have remained open all day, and there are no papers filed in the courts against the company.

It is stated that the wholesale business has proven the heavy drain upon the treasury of the concern.

MINUTE CHARTS WILL BE MADE

Coast Survey Service Steamer Now Located at Savannah.

Savannah, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The Hydrographer, a steamer in the coast survey service, reached Savannah today for a week's stay. The vessel is under command of Executive Officer William B. Proctor, and Nautical Expert John Ross has the direction of the force engaged in the survey.

All the ports on the south Atlantic and gulf coasts are to be visited and minute charts of channels made. The work will be published subsequently for the benefit of pilots.

New Pennsylvania Railway Bonds.

New York, May 8.—It was announced today that the stockholders of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, having subscribed to about $10,000,000 of the company's new 3 1-2 per cent convertible bonds, the remainder of the bonds, amounting to $90,000,000 will be taken over by the underwriting syndicate, which is headed by J. P. Morgan & Co. and Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

BOWEN ARRIVES IN NEW YORK

He Refuses To Talk About Affairs in Venezuela.

New York, May 8.—Herbert W. Bowen, American minister to Venezuela, arrived here today on the steamship Philadelphia. He said he would say nothing on Venezuelan affairs until he had reported at Washington. He inquired as to the present status of the Loomis charges, but declined to discuss the matter. He said he probably would go to Washington tomorrow.

MUSE'S,

ACTION ILLEGAL, SAYS THE MAYOR

Mayor Displeased at What Police Board Did.

He Said Last Night That the Change of Regular Men to Supe List Was Not Legal—Autos Go Too Fast Through the City.

Mayor Woodward told the police commissioners last night that he did not like some things they did while he was absent from the city, and expressed his disapproval in very emphatic words. He was displeased with the taking of certain men from the list of regulars and placing them on the supernumerary list after they had been elected as regulars. He also did not like the placing of the names of men on the minutes who owed debts.

This started the meeting of the board last night with a ripple of a sensation, when only routine business had been booked.

When the minutes were read it showed that men who had been placed on the "supe" list were made regulars, and regulars had been made "supes."

"That action was illegal," said the mayor, "and the men who were displaced from the regular list can lawfully claim their full salaries."

"It was done because a mistake had been made," explained Dr. Fox.

"No mistake was made so far as I am concerned," replied the mayor.

"Some of us did not understand how the matter really stood," stated Chairman Nunnally.

"There is another thing I don't like," continued Mayor Woodward, "and that is this thing of putting the names of men on the minutes who happen to owe little debts."

On motion, the list of debtors was expunged from the minutes. No action was taken about the mayor's other objection.

Auutos Go Too Fast.

Chief Jennings recommended that the speed of automobiles and motor bicycles be reduced to 6 miles in the fire limits and to 10 miles outside the fire limits. The recommendation was adopted and council will be asked to make the change.

"These autos and bikes are killing too many people," remarked Dr. Fox

A recommendation of the chief's to raise the salary of the signal inspector to $100 a month and that of the lineman to $60 was adopted and council will be asked to make the raise.

Why He Signed Pay Rolls.

Mayor Woodward explained that the reason he signed the police pay roll for $70 a month for the patrolmen was because it affected men who worked hard for very little pay.

"I know I am right so far as the law is concerned," he said, "but I have signed the pay rolls only for the reason I have given."

In the chief's report for April it was shown that 105 store doors had been found open and 119 tramps had been given beds at night. It also showed that the recorder had dismissed 199 cases during the month.

"It strikes me that there are too many cases made which are dismissed," said the mayor. "Talk to your men about it, Chief, and caution them about making cases when people are not guilty of anything. Call them down a little."

The chief was authorized to buy thirty-six new bicycles at once

GRAND COUNCIL MEETING TODAY

Great Sagamore Mayson, of Atlanta, Will Address the Braves.

Augusta, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—By tomorrow night there will be members of the order of Red Men in the city from all parts of the state to attend the meeting of the grand council, which will be in session Tuesday and Wednesday.

The big chiefs will begin to arrive today from all parts of the state. Great Sachem W. W. Dykes, of Americus, and Great Chief of Records M. J. Daniel, Jr., of Griffin, will be among the first arrivals. Hon. J. L. Mayson, great senior sagamore, will be among the first to make an address to the gathering. Mr. Mayson is the city attorney of Atlanta.

Past Great Incohonee Robert J. Daniel, of Griffin, will be one of the important figures at the meeting. It is said that he offered the president of the United States 200,000 men to fight for the Stars and Stripes in the last conflict. He is considered one of the greatest men that the Red Men have.

Great Keeper of Wampum George E. Johnson, of Atlanta, will also be at the meeting. He has been a member of the grand council for the past twenty-five years, and has been the keeper of wampum for the past twenty great suns.

Past Sachems Meet.

Tomorrow afternoon the fifth annual session of the Past Sachems' Association will be held, after which the members of the association will be tendered a banquet at the Albion hotel.

The real work of the great council will not begin before Tuesday morning. The meeting will be presided over by Great Sachem W. W. Dukes, of Americus, Ga. It is thought that there will be at least 200 delegates here from the different tribes and councils in the state. They will be camped in all parts of the city. Their headquarters will be at the Albion. The meeting will close Wednesday afternoon about 4 o'clock.

There are two tribes and two councils here, and the members of all of them have strived to make this the best grand council meeting that they have ever held. They have raised a nice sum to help out with the entertainment.

The selecting of the meeting place for the next great council will be decided at the meeting Wednesday afternoon.

A. M. BRANNON PASSES AWAY

Head of Columbus Drug Firm Died Yesterday Afternoon.

Columbus, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—A. M. Brannon, aged 73 years, one of the most prominent citizens and church men of Columbus, died this afternoon after a long illness.

He had resided in Columbus since 1851, and for fifty-four years was continuously in the drug business. He founded the drug house of Brannon & Carson Company, and was quite successful in business. For forty years he was a steward in St. Luke Methodist church, and for many years was a prominent figure in the South Georgia Methodist conference, being chairman of the joint board of finance of the conference. He was treasurer of St. Luke church a quarter of a century.

His wife, two sons, W. H. Brannon, Jr., of Talbotton, Ga., and R. Means Brannon of Charlotte, N. C., and a daughter, Mrs. Robert A. Carson, survive him. The funeral occurs tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock from St. Luke church, and will be in the nature of a memorial service, as there will be quite a number of talks from those who knew him intimately.

George W. Lyon, Saybrook, Conn.

New York, May 8.—George W. Lyon, surveyor of the port of New York under President Harrison and more recently judge of a minor court in the Philippines, is dead at the home of his son in Saybrook, Conn. Lyon was prominent in politics here for many years. He returned from his post in the Philippines over a year ago broken in health.

Robert R. West, Panama.

Washington, May 8.—Word has been received of the death yesterday at Panama of Robert R. West, of this city, who was sent to the canal zone as a deputy auditor for the isthmian canal zone, in February of this year. Death resulted from an attack of yellow fever. Prior to his departure for the isthmus Mr. West had held an important position in the treasury department. He was 46 years of age and a native of Lancaster, Ky.

H. W. Bailey, Washington, Ga.

Washington, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The funeral of H. U. Bailey, whose death occurred Friday night, occurred Sunday afternoon at Smyrna. Mr. Bailey moved to Washington only a few months ago. He was 34 years of age, and is survived by his wife and several small children.

Mrs. W. H. Chaffee, Tallapoosa, Ga.

Tallapoosa, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The funeral services of Mrs. W. H. Chaffee, wife of Dr. Chaffee, which took place at the Episcopal church Sunday, were very largely attended.

Mrs. Harry Fields, Hampton, Ga.

Hampton, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Mrs. Mary V. Fields, wife of J. G. Fields, died this morning and will be burried at Mount Carmel church tomorrow at 11 o'clock. She leaves a husband and six children.

WASHINGTON DUKE ON CHARON'S BOAT

Tobacco Magnate Passed Away, at Durham, Yesterday.

Career of Duke Was Remarkable One, He Having Started from Bottom and Worked Up Until He and His Sons Were Worth Millions.

Durham, N. C., May 8.—Washington Duke, the millionaire tobacco manufacturer and founder of what is now the American Tobacco Company, died at his residence here this afternoon, after a protracted illness, at the age of 84 years.

Some months ago Mr. Duke fell and broke a limb, and since that time had been confined to his room. His death was hastened by a complication of ailments. With him when he died were his three sons, Brodie L. Duke, of Durham; J. B. Duke, president of the American Tobacco Company, and B. N. Duke, also of New York.

The career of Washington Duke is remarkable, in that he and his three sons rose from poverty to the possession of fortunes estimated at several millions, each, within a period of some forty years.

Beginning with the manufacture of tobacco in a small way in the country near Durham, where he was born. Mr. Duke and his sons later established a small factory here. This gradually grew until it became one of the largest cigarette manufacturing concerns in the world, and some years ago went into the American Tobacco Company, J. B. Duke becoming president of the new company.

Mr. Duke retired from business some years ago on account of his advanced age, and has spent his time at home. He was greatly interested in Trinity college, the Methodist institution here, and together with his sons, has given it nearly $1,000,000. The funeral will take place here Wednesday.

SHORT ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

DR. E. B. TERRELL, OF GREENville, brother of Governor J. M. Terrell, was greatly improved last night and is now entirely out of danger. Dr. Terrell was on a visit to the executive mansion when he was taken ill.

DR. J. R. DUVALL LEFT ATLANTA last night to attend the Arkansas Eclectic Medical Association at Little Rock, where he has been invited to deliver an address on the subject, "Surgical Technique." The association convenes Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock and remains in session several days.

A STEREOPTICON EXHIBITION OF the celebrated Heine pictures will be given by the Council of Jewish Women on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the vestry of the temple. These pictures present views of Jewish home life, and are of great value, both from a religious and an educational standpoint.

THE UNITED STATES COURT WAS in session from 10 to 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning, Judge Newman presiding, and while the session was a busy one, nothing of importance or quantity was transacted. There was a call of the docket and a number of cases were set for hearing during the present week, today being the initial day of the legal combats. A number of motions were heard and orders touching them may be issued this morning or afternoon. A traverse jury was drawn and twenty-five jurors were sworn in for the pending term of court.

ROME, IN THE NORTHEASTERN division of the northern circuit, will be Hon. W. T. Newman's headquarters next week. United States court will be convened in that city Monday morning, and may be in session throughout the week, as a number of cases are on the docket. Along with Judge Newman will go District Attorney Angier and his assistants, together with representatives from the marshal's office and from the clerk's office.

R. P. STAHL, OF ATLANTA, FILED a voluntary petition in bankruptcy. The petition shows the applicant to be a clerk and gives his liabilities as $550, without any assets.

FOR HIMSELF AND THE GATE CITY Furniture Company, located at 118 Whitehall street, H. H. Tucker has filed a petition in bankruptcy. The petitioner shows his liabilities to be $1,209.43 and his assets to be $141.70.

INVENTORIES RECEIVED BY COLlector Markham indicate an increased value and quantity of importations consigned to Atlanta merchants, but on account of the taxed condition of the railroads the consignments are slow coming in. The collector states that many of the consignments have already reached American ports and are being held because the railroads, not being able to handle them, have not called for a delivery.

ANDREW N. DAGGRES, A GREEK, who is conducting a restaurant on Marietta street, was yesterday made a citizen of the United States before Judge Newman, of the United States court. Daggres, in event of war, would make a good soldier for his adopted country, judging by his size.

MRS. C. E. HUNT, WHO HAS BEEN quite ill at her home, 119 Washington street, since her return from Florida, shows no improvement and her family, friends and physicians are apprehensive of the result. Mr. Hunt, who is connected with a New York hotel paper, is in the city at her bedside.

FRANK M. POTTS, WHO HAS BEEN confined to his home on East Fifth street for some weeks, is improving as rapidly as his family and attending physicians could have anticipated. Mr. Potts is now able to move about his home and is in excellent spirits. Unless a relapse should occur, Mr. Potts may be able to leave his home within a short time.

W. J. STODDARD, WHO WAS SUBjected to a difficult and painful operation at the St. Joseph infirmary some weeks ago, was able to be upon the streets for a short time yesterday afternoon and was given a warm greeting by his many friends, who have been watching his condition closely.

THE BODY OF MISS MATTIE HOWard passed through Atlanta yesterday at noon en route to her parent's home at McMinnville, Tenn., where they will be laid to rest. Miss Cane died Saturday night at the home of an aunt near Albany, where she had been visiting after a short illness, pneumonia being the disease. She was a young woman of beauty and was in her ninteenth year. The remains were accompanied by her brother, G. T. Cane, who was with her during the last few days of her illness.

MRS. MARY L. LINDENBERG, OF 147 1-2 Peters street, was fined $50 and held in a $200 bond by the recorder yesterday afternoon for selling beer and khisky on Sunday. The woman made a specialty of supplying soldiers with liquor on the Sabbath. She denied the charge, but men were in court who testified that they bought both beer and whisky from her on last Sunday.

THREE NEGRO BOYS WERE FINED in the recorder's court yesterday afternoon for riding bicycles too fast on Peachtree street. Officer Key is after the reckless riders and he is bringing them in every day.

THE CASE AGAINST LEONARDO Postero, charged with selling white hops on Sunday, was called in the recorder's court yesterday afternoon and postponed until next Friday on account of the absence of the city attorney. The police will endeavor to show that white hops is alcoholic and is only beer in disguise. Postero runs a restaurant on Marietta street between Broad and Forsyth streets. He is an Italian and not a Greek. Members of the Greek colony in Atlanta object to Postero being called a Greek.

TOMA CORELLA, THE ITALIAN whose monkey caused a great consternation among city prisoners Sunday morning, was fined $1.75 by the recorder yesterday for doing business without a license. Corella's monkey got loose in the city prison Sunday morning and several old topers saw the animal and thought they "had 'em" sure enough.

JACKSONVILLE MAYOR SAYS:

"Pe-ru-na Is an Honest Medicine. I Endorse It."

HON. M. A. DZIALYNSKI, EX-MAYOR OF JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

Hon. M. A. Dzialynski, Judge Municipal Court, former Mayor of Jacksonville, County Commissioner of Duval County, City Treasurer, also County Tax Collector, writes from Jacksonville, Fla.:

"My experience and that of my family has been that Peruna is an excellent medicine for colds, general debility and stomach trouble.

"I am therefore pleased to endorse it, as I fully appreciate its merits and believe that it is an honest medicine well worthy the confidence of the public."

Systemic Catarrh Quickly Leads to Shattered Nerves.

Catarrhal nervousness is a phrase that has been recently coined to describe these cases.

Catarrh affects the whole digestive tract and produces a rundown, anemic condition of the body.

All this leads to a most profound lassitude and general weakness.

Bitter tonics are generally resorted to and in some cases they do seem to benefit.

They do not reach the cause, however.

The real cause is catarrh.

When the cause is removed, the symptoms will disappear.

Peruna is the remedy that should be used.

It cleanses the digestive organs of all catarrhal derangements.

This at once stimulates the digestion and invigorates the circulation, and everything very quickly goes right again.

It is the promptness with which Peruna cures these cases that has caused some observers to regard Peruna as a catarrhal tonic.

TWO DOGS STARVE TO DEATH WATCHING CRAZED MASTER

NEW YORK, May 8.—In a swamp near Mount Holly, N. J., two dead dogs have been found where they perished from starvation while keeping vigil over their master, who had suddenly lost his mind and wandered from home. The man, Amos Willetts, was still alive, but in the last stages of exhaustion from hunger and thirst. His condition was such that his captors marveled that he should have outlived his devoted animals.

Willetts suddenly lost his mind several days ago. Almost as soon as the fact became known he disappeared with the two dogs, his inseparable companions. The case was reported to the authorities, and constables were assigned to the task of finding Willetts. They searched the entire country side without success, but entering the swamp found Willetts curled up in the mud. His clothing was torn to shreds and he was unconscious from exhaustion. Beside him were stretched the carcasses of the faithful dogs.

PLOWING UP COTTON FIELDS

Farmers Taking Heroic Measures Against the Grass.

Hundreds of Acres of Sumter County Cotton So Hidden by Grass That Owners Are Destroying It and Will Replant Later.

Americus, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Upon numerous plantations about Americus the unusual spectacle was presented today of farmers plowing up entire fields of cotton to successfully kill grass.

Hundreds of acres of cotton are thus being wholly destroyed, but it is the only effective means at hand.

The fine stands of cotton are completely concealed from view by rank grass, and as it can not be worked successfully, farmers are plowing up entire fields and will replant the crop later. The prospect is very discouraging.

NINETEEN BILLS FOUND BY JURY

Prominent Citizens of Wilkes Are Indicted for Gaming.

Washington, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The grand jury of Wilkes county returned nineteen true bills against various citizens of Washington for gaming, merchandising on the Sabbath and selling alcoholic beverages in violation of the prohibition law, which obtains in Wilkes county, as a result of their seven days' deliberations, which came to a close Saturday evening.

More than half of the number of true bills found were against some of the most prominent white citizens of the city, and came as a decided surprise to everyone. Since the matter has been taken up by the grand jury, the town authorities will carry out the investigations in the hope of raising the moral tone of Washington.

The new officers are as follows: Past grand patriarch, J. H. Brown, of Montgomery; grand patriarch, H. Vogel, of Mobile; grand high priest, J. A. McClusky, of Sylacauga; grand senior warden, J. A. Erkert, of Birmingham; grand junior warden, F. F. Conway, of Mobile; grand scribe, Robert West, of Montgomery; grand treasurer, Erswell, of Birmingham; grand representative, John Ellis, of Anniston. The later three were reelected.

The sixty-fifth annual meeting of the grand lodge convened this morning. About 350 delegates are here and about 200 more are expected. The committee on entertainment is doing everything possible for the comfort of the visitors.

BODY WAS WELL PRESERVED.

Levi Steele's Remains Taken from Virginia Mine.

Birmingham, Ala., May 8.—The body of Levi Steele was taken from Virginia mine yesterday, and although the explosion by which he was killed was February 20, the body was well preserved. This swells the number of victims of the disaster to 112.

Rumors of Lynching Current.

Richmond, Va., May 8.—Rumors were current tonight that crowds were gathering outside the city to attempt to lynch Austin Johnson, a negro confined in the Henrico county jail for an alleged felonious assault upon Ruth Pinchbeck, a 10-year-old white girl. Police were hurried to the jail and the latter is so strongly guarded that no mobs are likely to effect an entrance. The jail is within the city limits of Richmond.

NEW BOARD ISSUE ABOUT PLACED

Two Million Dollar Investment to be Made at Columbia.

Columbia, S. C., May 8.—The Columbia Electric Street Railway, Light and Power Company is to acquire by purchase the Columbia Water Power Company.

F. S. Anable, of Boston, and Mr. Francis K. Karey, of Baltimore, were here today perfecting the details of the transaction which is the most significant that has taken place in this state.

An auxiliary steam plant costing $300,000 is to be erected, to be used in emergencies, and the company is to supply motive power to the factories, mills and other plants here. The Mercantile Trust and Deposit Company, of Baltimore, are to be trustees. The new issue of bonds has been practically placed and is in great demand. The merger involves an investment of $2,000,000.

WORKMEN GET STRIKE FINES.

Acting Mayor Dixon Suspends Fines During Good Behavior.

Savannah, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Acting Mayor James M. Dixon, in police court this afternoon, fined a number of apprentices and painters of the Atlantic Coast Line $50 each, suspending the sentence during good behavior. In addition, he turned Berry Cummerlin over to the city court on a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

The investigation followed rioting last Saturday night when Berry Summerlin, James Summerlin and J. B. Arden were beaten. Others involved were J. W. Turner, C. E. Eberhardt, T. H. McEwen, A. F. McDonnell and B. H. Meehan. The row started because the men had refused to walk out when the paint shop strike was declared a few days ago.

HAS TWO WIVES, IT IS CHARGED

Chattanooga Barber is Held at Dalton for Bigamy.

Dalton, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—George C. Boggs, a barber from Chattanooga, was tried here today on the charge of bigamy. He is said to have married wife No. 1 in South Carolina twenty-seven years ago, and to have five living children by his first wife, and three grandchildren, who reside at Calhoun, S. C.

He is alleged to have married his second wife, who was Miss Nellie Coney, in this city last Christmas.

Boggs, it is reported, deserted his family about a year ago. The maiden name of his alleged first wife was Mauldin, and she has a brother in Atlanta, who was a witness in the case. Boggs was bound over to court on a $200 bond.

RAISING MONEY FOR FACTORIES

North Carolina Tobacco Growers Will Defy the Alleged Trust.

Wilmington, N. C., May 8.—(Special.)—The tobacco growers of North Carolina are deciding to establish factories in the state for the purpose of defying the alleged tobacco trust.

Subscription books for a factory in Madison were opened with a proposed $90,000 capital and over 50 per cent of the amount was subscribed in an hour. Another factory will be built at Rocky Mount, in eastern North Carolina, and the movement has practically the backing of the entire tobacco growing belt of the state.

POLICY HOLDERS ARE PROTECTED

Superintendent Hendricks Talks About the Equitable.

He Says Policy Holders Need Not Be Alarmed, as Society Is Solvent and Able To Carry Out All of Its Contracts.

Albany, N. Y., May 8.—Superintendent of Insurance Francis H. Hendricks made public today the following statement:

"To the Policy Holders of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States:

"This department is in receipt of numerous inquiries concerning the controversy now pending witnin the management of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, New York, and particularly as to the solvency of the society.

"In order to allay any anxiety of all the policy holders, I deem it proper at this time to say that in connection with the examination of the society now in progress by this department, I am at this date sufficiently well informed as to its condition to unhesitatingly state that it is financially sound, and that all its contracts to policy holders are fully and safely guaranteed.

The responses will be made by Commissioner Bennett, of Brooks county. The principal work of the convention will be done on Wednesday and Thursday.

ESCAPING MOB, FARMER FLEES

Brice Tinch Alleges Exciting Experience at His Home.

Selma, Ala., May 8.—Brice Tinch, a prominent farmer of Dallas county, came to Selma this morning and reported that he was compelled to leave his home during the night to escape from a mob which had surrounded his house.

According to the story said to have been related by Tinch, he had a dispute the day previous with one Haynes, and the latter with Haynes' son, blows being passed in the first instance and bullets in the second. After this he proceeded home, where the house was afterwards surrounded he alleges. He slipped from the house under cover of the darkness, came to Selma and reported the matter.

WHAT JOY THEY BRING TO EVERY HOME

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play—when in health—and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature, and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained, by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.

LITTLE ORDERS BIBLES USED

Chattahoochee Judge Wants Witnesses Sworn in the Old Manner.

Columbus, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The May term of Muscogee superior court begins today with Judge W. A. Little, the new judge, on the bench. In charging the grand jury he referred in feeling terms to the life and services of the late Judge Butt. His charge to the grand jury was able and elaborate.

Judge Little announced that in swearing witnesses and jurors he wished the Bible used.

"To me a court is a mockery with out a Bible," he declared. The judge had the sheriff procure a number of Bibles and the court will go back to the old custom, the book being used whenever an oath is administered.

The grand jury elected William B. Slade foreman. Among the indictments returned was one against M. C. Cohran, a white man, who is charged with arson.

George Palmer Succeeds Himself.

Columbus, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—George C. Palmer, who has been the efficient court reporter of the Chattahoochee circuit for twelve years, was reappointed by Judge Little today. Mr. Palmer was first appointed by Judge Butt.

COMMENCEMENT AT MONROE.

Dr. Gray, of Atlanta, To Preach During Week.

Forsyth, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The programme of exercises for Monroe commencement has been perfected, every number of which is one of unusual attraction. Rev B. D. Gray, of Atlanta, will preach the baccalaureate sermon, while the baccalaureate address will be made by Rev. Lansing Burrows, D. D., of Nashville, Tenn.

The exercises promise to be of more than ordinary interest. Forty-one graduates from various departments will this year receive diplomas, the number in the special departments being greater than usual, which fact strongly indicates the progress along all lines of work undertaken by this institution.

Recent gifts from generous donors have lent confidence and courage to those who have upon them this work.

The commencement programme is as follows:

MRS. MAYBRICK AND MOTHER.

They Will Go To Richmond To Give Evidence in Suit.

Washington, May 8.—The Baroness Caroline von Roques, mother of Mrs. Florence Maybrick, who is the plaintiff in a suit against D. W. Armstrong, involving large tracts of land in Virginia and Kentucky, has arrived here from New York where she landed yesterday from Havre.

Mrs. Maybrick did not accompany her, being detained in New York by a fractured knee cap, but is expected in a few days, when she and the baroness will go to Richmond to give testimony in the suit. The hearing of evidence for the plaintiff was transferred from this city to Richmond because of questions raised by her counsel as to the admissibility of certain letters, and which claimed imposed upon her an unnecessary expenditure of money.

MANUFACTURERS AT KNOXVILLE

Cotton Men Gather for Big Annual Convention.

Association Will Discuss Increase of Export Cotton Trade of United States — Key of Tennessee Marble for the Visitors.

Knoxville, Tenn., May 8.—Elaborate preparations are being made by the citizens of Knoxville for the entertainment of the delegates to the ninth annual convention of the American Cotton Manufacturers' Association, which meets here Wednesday. Delegates began arriving in numbers today.

The association has about 400 members, including applications of about fifty new members, who will be elected and announced at the coming convention. It is believed by some of the members that the new membership list will be increased to approximately 100 at the meeting this week, which bids fair to be the largest gathering the association has ever held.

The programme is one of the best the association has ever had. Papers of a technical, commercial and educational value will be read by experts in these particular lines. The association is paying particular attention to export cotton goods trade expansion, and every effort is being made to interest manufacturers, commission merchants and every one in the great value of this increase.

"It is peculiarly striking that while America has some 20 per cent of the spindles of the world, America's export of cotton goods amounts to only 3½ per cent of the world's foreign consumption. Against this Great Britain gets 55 per cent of the world's consumption. Germany 12 per cent. This country should be getting 25 per cent of the export cotton goods trade of the world. American cotton mills today operate about 24,000,000 spindles. It is estimated that in addition to American spindleage 80,000,000, making a total of 104,000,000 spindles would spin the American cotton crop. This would indicate an investment of 2,800,000,000 more in American cotton mills, making a total investment for American mills of $2,800,000,000. This can be brought about in only one way, by extending our export trade. We can compete with the world in price and quality, and are doing so to some extent in the Orient. To help this movement and show our manufacturers and merchants the kind of goods foreigners want, how to make them and point out the way for our merchants to reach outside markets is one of the greatest works any association has ever assumed. It is becoming more and more realized by the manufacturing world that this is the most important work to be done during the next few years. It is hard for the mind to grasp such a volume of investment as $2,800,000,000 in cotton manufacturing plants, but American ingenuity and American progressiveness should make for us markets that will buy the production from America's entire cotton crop."

It is assumed by some of the members that the attendance at this convention will represent in both active and assosciate members approximately $1,000,000,000 invested capital, which is probably the largest amount ever represented in any southern city by a textile association convention.

A reception has been arranged at Chilhowee park Wednesday evening. Resolutions have been adopted by the various committees in Knoxville requesting the manufacturers and business men in general to display the American and Knoxville flags and other decorations during convention days.

A banner bearing the word "Welcome" will be stretched across the streets. A large key of the city has ben cut from Tennessee marble and placed in a case made from Tennessee wood.

Among those who are to be present from Georgia are:

G. W. Hamilton, president Crown cotton mills, Dalton, Ga.; B. E. Willingham, secretary Willingham cotton mills, Macon, Ga.; L. W. Smith, president Tennille yarn mills, Tennille, Ga.; John W. GREAT REVIVAL AT LA GRANGE

Dr. Broughton Conducting Meetings--Hundreds Profess Religion.

LaGrange, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—A phenomenal meeting was held here Saturday night by the two noted revivalists, Dr. Len G. Broughton, of Atlanta, and Major Cole, of Michigan. Hundreds of men, women and children rushed up to the platform and professed conversion or reconsecration. The sight was so unusual that the audience of 2,000 or 3,000 souls was deeply moved, and it was many minutes before quiet was restored.

Many of the oldest inhabitants say that they have never before witnessed such a meeting. The whole community has been wonderfully stirred by the union meetings. Dr. Broughton has failed to preach a single sensational sermon during the whole course of the meetings so far. Major Cole has conducted the Bible study and prayer hours and no excitement has been manifest at the meeting until Saturday night, when a storm seemed to break loose.

In the afternoon Hon. Hoke Smith, of Atlanta, addressed a meeting of farmers at the court house, larger than has ever assembled in LaGrange before, and pleaded powerfully with them to lead more consecrated lives. His address made a profound impression on all who heard it. Dr. Broughton returns to Atlanta Tuesday morning.

PARDON DENIED MRS. MAYBRICK

British Government Won't Extend Complete Clemency to Her.

Washington, May 8.—Ambassador Choate has cabled the state department that the British foreign office has refused to grant any further clemency to Mrs. Florence E. Maybrick, who recently made application through the state department at Washington for a complete pardon.

It appears that Mrs. Maybrick was not granted a complete pardon, but was released from imprisonment on certain conditions, and she still is technically under sentence. Her testimony is regarded as very necessary in the prosecution of a civil action of her mother, the Baroness Von Roques, to recover a sum of money on account of a land transaction which is now pending, and it was to make her eligible as a witness that an application was made to the British government through the state department to grant a full pardon.

GREAT TRIBUTE PAID DECEASED

Rev. Ellison Stone Referred to in Exceedingly High Terms.

Athens, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The funeral of Rev. Ellison D. Stone was conducted Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the First Methodist church. Fully 300 people failed to get inside the church, where at least 800 had assembled. At the cemetery fully a thousand people had gathered to pay tribute to the venerable minister who had passed away. Never in the history of Athens was so magnificent a tribute paid the memory of a man.

The services were in charge of Rev. W. G. Crawley, pastor of Oconee Street church, of which the deceased was a member. General Clement A. Evans, of Atlanta, preached the funeral sermon, and remarks were made by Dr. William King, of Atlanta; Rev. G. W. Yarbrough, of Oxford, and others.

At the grave in Oconee cemetery each little member of Baldwin Street Sunday school, of which Mr. Stone was founder and superintendent, sang a hymn and deposited bouquets of flowers on his grave.

General Evans, Dr. King and Mr. Yarbrough in their remarks all referred to the deceased as the best man they ever knew, the nearest approach to the Christ on earth.

The remains of the beloved minister were laid to rest in Oconee cemetery and the grave covered with a perfect wilderness of flowers.

IN THIS ISSUE is presented as a fitting companion feature to Mrs. Berkeley-Loyd's "Fashions in New York" no less an authority than Edouard La Fontaine, who will furnish us with the text and illustrations each month for our Paris Letter.

M. La Fontaine is without peer on the European continent as a dress critic and a writer on all topics pertaining to fashions. Besides this, he is an artist of great individuality, as is shown by his sketches which are reproduced in his Paris Letter. They have a style and an atmosphere about them distinctly Parisian. Known personally to all the famous dress creators in the various fashion centres of Europe, he has free access to their establishments and "private views" of their latest productions long before they are seen in public. Under the arrangement just concluded, M. La Fontaine will contribute to THE DELINEATOR exclusively in America.

ANNA BURNHAM WESTERMANN, whose charming drawings have appeared for some time in THE DELINEATOR, illustrating the styles described in the "Fashions in New York," is well known as a creator of figures of living grace, which, without lessening in any way their value as fashion drawings, lifts them far beyond the plane of the usual fashion plate. Mrs. Westermann's women are sweet and womanly and, better than all for your purpose, they know how to wear their dresses. They are always well groomed, and their appearance each month in THE DELINEATOR will surely be welcomed by all of its readers. Hereafter Mrs. Westermann's fashion drawings will appear only in THE DELINEATOR.

BEAUTIFUL FASHION ILLUSTRATIONS IN COLORS

ROMANCES OF SUMMER RESORTS," by Weymer Jay Mills, begins in this number. No series of tales published for some time promises so much of general interest as these charmingly reminiscent tales. Their delightful telling and the quaint old pictures which accompany them assure enjoyment to every reader.

A TRAVEL SKETCH that is brimful of interest is F. Berkeley Smith's description of "A CORNER IN NORMANDY." It is interesting as a story and gives you more than a passing glance at one of the most curious nooks in the old world.

THE third installment of Albert Bigelow Paine's "THE LUCKY-PIECE," and another of the "SON RILEY RABBIT" tales by Grace MacGowan Cooke, together with the many regular departments, make this issue a remarkable one. "THE PRACTICAL SIDE OF A WEDDING," in the Home Department, discusses fully the problem of bringing the wedding festivities within a reasonable expenditure.

HILL IN FAVOR OF GYMNASIUM

Chancellor of University Thinks Funds May be Thus Applied.

Savannah, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Chancellor Hill, of the state university, concerning the proposition of the Savannah alumni to invest the alumni fund in a gymnasium said:

"There seems to be a strong sentiment in favor of investing the fund in that way, though there are several other suggestions that are entitled to an equal amount of consideration. There is a movement now under way to erect a handsome Young Men's Christian Association building on the campus, and the alumni and the Young Men's Christian Association people might formulate some mutual plan which would be profitable to all concerned.

"If the gymnasium plan is adopted, there is no question that it will be necessary to engage a man for that department. If each congressional representative on the special committee will ascertain the sentiment in his district, I think that the committee will be able to make a recommendation which will be acceptable without much discussion.

"The principal trouble lies in the fact that it is now intended to divert the fund from the purpose for which it was originally subscribed. When subscriptions were sought it was with the idea of getting a fund with which to construct two new buildings on the campus, a dormitory and a dining hall. Both of these needs have been met by legislative apropriations and the fund cannot be devoted to the uses for which it was originally intended."

Won't Burn Paraphernalia.

Macon, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—There is to be no bonfire of the gambling paraphernalia taken in charge by Bibb's grand jury. Solicitor William Brunson has advised the body that they cannot legally dispose of the property in this manner, and it may revert to the owners.

The grand jury is still pursuing the gamblers, and there are more of them in trouble as a result of today's deliberations.

Builded Upon Water

THE handsome modern hotels at French Lick and West Baden were built to accommodate the increasing thousands that go to take the wonderful curative waters of these twin resorts.

For toning the system and curing bowel, kidney, stomach and liver affections the natural waters of these springs are unequalled by any in the world.

There are ten of these medicinal springs having different degrees of strength and different properties.

In addition to the health giving waters these resorts have climatic and scenic advantages possessed by no others in Europe or America—splendidly wooded hills, fine scenery, good roads for rides, drives or walks and above all, pure bracing air that is a tonic in itself.

There is a movement to make General Joe Wheeler president of the Jamestown exposition in the place of the late General Fitzhugh Lee. It would be hard to find a better hustler and a man whose name carries more prestige.

New England's Losing Fight.

There is no longer any tendency on part of New England cotton manufacturers to belittle the serious menace with which the expanding milling industry of the south threatens the ancient textile supremacy of the former section. Indeed, it is not exaggeration to state that a certain element has gone so far as to dolefully predict that within the course of a generation the south's incomparable advantages will have dealt a death blow to this vast industrial mainstay of the New England states. The situation has become sufficiently critical to call for an extended review by President Walmsley, of the New England Cotton Manufacturers' Association. In a speech recently delivered in Boston he takes an optimistic view, but warns his fellow-manufacturers that the task ahead is one of no mean proportions.

With the following words he seeks to instill courage and energy into the leaders who have become discouraged by the untoward developments of the last two years:

The suggestion that New England's great staple industry is on the wane, on the decline, is worse than absurd; it is a reflection upon common sense. No greater mistake can be made than to imagine there is anything to justify such a narrow, shortsighted conclusion. On the contrary, established upon a solid foundation as it is, it will continue to play a far greater part in the future than it has done in the past, and will continue to be an important factor in the progress and prosperity of New England.

The Springfield Republican, unquestionably one of the best informed papers on this special topic in the New England territory, grasps eagerly at Mr. Walmsley's emphatic reassurances as the text for an optimistic editorial. The following extract, however, betrays an undercurrent of apprehension thinly disguised beneath a plausible front:

And why should not the future justify Mr. Walmsley's confident words? True, New England suffers from two handicaps in the present stage of industrial development--her DISTANCE FROM THE COTTON AND THE COAL FIELDS. But the fuel problem may undergo some betterment in the future; if the possibilities of our natural water powers for the generation and transmission of electric energy are sufficiently developed; while, in the matter of the raw material for spinning, it is certain that this section can never be so badly situated as England, whose cotton manufacturers today, despite their natural handicap of geographical location, are more prosperous than before in a generation. Capital, inventive talent, skill of operatives and ability of management should always be at the command of this industry in New England no less than 'n old England, and with those assured, the future should not be doubtful. IN THE MAKING OF FINE FABRICS AT LEAST, OUR SUPREMACY, SO FAR AS THIS COUNTRY IS CONCERNED, OUGHT NEVER TO BE CHALLENGED; and in this line especially should be our amplest development in order that our cotton manufacturers may compete with the English in open markets abroad.

In resisting the temptation to blink facts, The Republican exhibits commendable courage and intelligence. The fact that its anxiety is none the less keen, is shown by its effort to demonstrate that at least in one field, that of fine fabric manufacturing, New England should retain its supremcy. The further candid admissions both of Mr. Walmsley and The Republican regarding New England's handicaps in antiquated machinery, the need for comprehensive technical training and the growing phantom of labor difficulties, are equally significant. One cannot help applauding the bravery and energy displayed in the frank facing of radically new conditions and the determined attempts to find a satisfactory solution. It is simply the workings of that admirable New England spirit instrumental in the creation of an overshadowing industry, which is now apparently doomed.

We make use of the word advisedly. There is not a single fortuitous industrial development tending to help New England which will not, simultaneously, benefit the south in larger ratio. If the reliance of the hard-pressed manufacturers is placed on the harnessing of the water powers of that section to electrical machines, the south has an equal advantage. Water power is more abundant in the south than in New England and our mill men are rapidly learning its mechanical value and economy. In the matter of ports, the advantage of New England is the ephemeral one of older exploitation, and it is being diminished at an astonishing rate. As regards finer fabric manufacturing, it need not be doubted that the south will enter this field within a decade, and when it does the conditions are such as to practically preclude profitable competition. Geographical location, climate, nearness to field and mine, an awakening to the importance of technical training—every one of these salient factors are arrayed on the side of the south. The facts are so self-evident that it would be folly to deny them.

On what, then, does New England's present supremacy rest? Merely priority of establishment with all that means of vastness and superior facilities. These advantages are year by year crumbling under the sledge hammer blows of southern industrial evolution, an evolution as natural, unforced and inevitable as fate itself. In the course of time the south will be the center of the cotton milling industry, not only of this country, but of the world. It will not be today or tomorrow—New England's numerical superiority in looms and spindles alone is still formidable. But the day IS coming. It may perhaps be deferred by unforeseen commercial depression or artificial methods such as are implied in the programme advanced by President Walmsley. That it cannot be definitely prevented is shown by the policy of the further-seeing mill men, who are accepting the situation by investing their money in this section in anticipation of its arrival.

For the sake of the south and their own prosperity, we should welcome the extension of this sensible movement to other New England mill owners. Their pluck and ingenuity arouses our sympathy and admiration, while not altering our conviction that their plans are pre-doomed to ultimate failure, for the very transparent reason that they do not take into account the automatic laws of nature and of commerce.

Mr. Loeb's Troubles.

The secretary to the president, Mr. Loeb, has other troubles on his hands besides those incident to his being charged by some of the president's boon companions with being a dude.

In commenting upon the suit brought by Miss Mae C. Wood, Mr. Loeb says that he never saw Miss Wood. Miss Wood corroborates this statement, but at the same time she manifests peculiar anxiety to have Mr. Loeb served with papers which will bring him into her suit.

There is evidently something in this Wood case that has not yet been disclosed. The arch conspirator, according to the papers originally filed, was one J. Martin Miller, a newspaper man who, Miss Wood charges, secured from her those precious "Love Letters of a Boss," by means of which she expected to secure notoriety, if not literary fame. She charges that Miller secured these by posing as a detective.

Now, Miller was recently appointed United States consul at Aix-la-Chapelle, and it is said, he secured the appointment largely, if not entirely, through the good offices of Secretary Loeb.

At the time the newspapers first announced that Mr. Miller was slated for this job a hitch developed. Mr. Miller claimed residence in New Jersey. The New Jersey senators had not been consulted with regard to the selection of so important an official from their state, and a protest against the appointment was made by Sentor Kean, the result of which was that the appointment was held up until after the senate had adjourned, when it could be made of the recess variety.

In view of this opposition on the part of the senators from the state to which Mr. Miller was accredited, it may have an interesting bearing upon the charges now made by Miss Wood to know just what influence did secure for Mr. Miller this fat plum in the consular service.

At first it was assumed that there was no influence back of it other than the fact that the journalist in question had written a very laudatory "Life of Theodore Roosevelt."

The president has been most kind to all of his biographers. But in the light of developments, it seems possible the office went to Mr. Miller as reward for something else, and that the fine Italian hand of Secretary Loeb was in it all.

LETTERS FROM PEOPLE.

Side Line for Farmers.

Why should not farmers have a side line? Many of the most successful commercial travelers carry a side line and find the same a profitable adjunct to their regular business. The National Cotton Association, which was organized at Shreveport, La., December, 1904—recently merged into the Southern Cotton Association—had a splendid motto: "Diversification—something to sell every day." That is the story in a nut shell.

Largely, pumpkin culture has gone out of custom. A few are grown for home use. When a small boy, I have seen twenty to thirty carts a day on the streets of Augusta filled to overflowing with pumpkins produced on the Savannah river swamp lands. They sold at $1 per cart load and were usually fed to stock—especially to milch cows. Now and then a person would purchase a choice one for use at home, being made in pie or pumpkin chips.

If there has been a cart load of pumpkins on the Augusta market since 1865 it escaped my attention.

But pumpkins aside, there are several varieties of large, and somewhat by exaggeration, luscious squashes. They answer the double purpose of a table dish and food for the milch cow. Gather when just past the strictly green state, sliced and nicely fried they are far superior in flavor to the popular egg plant.

I have experimented with the Hubbard squash. It gave in every particular most satisfactory results. The Hubbard is prolific and ripens at 6 to 10 pounds each. Harvested when fully ripe and carefully stored in house or dry cellar they will keep through winter and spring and are daily at command for table use or as stock food.

Break the ground deep—suppose you try an acre this year—harrow clean and level, check ten feet each way. Put in each check a fork full of well rotted stable manure and add 300 pounds of a commercial fertilizer, rich in acid phosphate and potash, or apply 600 pounds per acre of a fertilizer rich in the three elements, 7:4:5 goods will answer. Cultivate as you do watermelons. Soon as plants are up thin to a stand of two at each check. Watch the bugs. Prepare against them. Dust the plants three times a week, late in the afternoon, with land plaster or begin to spray with bordeaux mixture. Give the same close attention to the crop you are accustomed to give to your melon crop; you will be richly rewarded.

If you be desirous to see just what the Hubbard can do use 6:4:8 goods—enough to give 100 pounds of available phosphoric acid, 60 pounds of nitrogen and 130 pounds of potash, plant food. This contemplates 800 pounds of dissolved rock, 300 pounds of sulphate ammonia and 260 pounds muriate of potash. This constitutes a balanced ration that will beautifully and remuneratively round up the crop.

Build thee no altars, O, thou worshiper,
Hold not too dear a human love;
Break thou no vase of frankincense and myrrh,
Only before the Throne that seraphs bend above.

Raise not too high a dais—veiled—apart—
Lest when your worship you have paid,
Your idol turn, and rend your loving heart,
Dash down with ruthless hand the shrine you made.

I reckon I'll be goin'!—She'll be layin' down the law;
I'll make for old Stone Mountain—hit the grit fer Kennesaw!
An' jest keep on a-goin', till I strike a steamer-ship,
Fer it's time to go to Europe, an' I'd better make the trip!

(Ruther face the fire to be—
Ruther risk the roarin' sea
Than Jemima, in her tantrums,
With that hick'ry flying free!)

We'll make enough in watermelons this year to offset all we'll lose on cotton, and we'll make just enough cotton to lose our religion and go to glory cussin' out Wall street.

The citizens who swore off for a year, last January, are now of the opinion that whisky is a sure cure for snakebite, so they have ordered a barrel, and emigrated to the snake settlement.

Growlin' is a great relief to the feelin's. Just to get in a corner and cuss out the world, privately, saves many folks from a long spell of sickness.

An' we'll never melt in sunshine,
Or ever drown in rain!

You hear the river callin'—
It's waters cool an' deep?
On its banks the blossoms fallin:—
Make yer bed, an' go to sleep!

Fer it's joy-time in Georgia,
Valley, hill an' plain,
An' we've songs for every sunbeam,
An' a glad one fer the rain!

Nice Finale.

"And what do you think of our beautiful city?" asked the Chicago girl, according to The Chicago News.

"Your beautiful city," yawned the young man from New York, "reminds me of a bursted drum."

The Chicago girl looked daggers, bayonets, and hatpins.

"What!" she flashed. "Our city reminds you of a bursted drum? Why so, sir?"

"Because it can't be beaten."

And she was so pleased she promised to say something real nice about New York.

GEORGIA'S "TRUST-BUSTER" IS ALREADY AT HAND

The Man for Governor Whom the Most Eminent Trust-Busters and Reformers Indorse.

(From The Brunswick Journal.)

We were intensely gratified to read in The Atlanta Journal of Thursday afternoon an editorial entitled:

"WANTED A TRUST BUSTER IN GEORGIA," and we adopt from that editorial the following paragraphs:

"There is a splendid opportunity in this state for some man of shrewdness, and fighting ability, and integrity and unusual force to "make a hit" with the people. Some man like LaFolette, of Wisconsin, for instance.

"Georgia is called the 'Empire tSate of the South.' It has vast natural resources. These are only partially developed. Their full development is made impossible by the discrimination practically against the state by the railroad corporations. Georgia has a 'magnificent seaboard.' This should naturally be the basis for a great commercial expansion. But railroad combination has prevented it from cutting the figure which it should. The rates from the interior of the state to the seaboard are so high that Georgia, in general, profits no more by the possessions of its harbors than if it had them not. It might just as well be an inland state.

"It appears to be almost impossible for the general public and the commercial interests of the state to get relief from the corporate tyranny. This is because of the railroad activity in state politics.

"In saying that we want a trust-buster in Georgia we are not advertising for a demagogue. None need apply. We want a big conservative man, who is resolved on seeing that justice is done to the railroad interests as well as to the public, one who will have force enough not to let himself be carried into any wild-eyed position by the inevitably coming reaction against long years of railroad domination and railroad injustice and railroad influence in state politics.

"No permanent relief from the present railroad situation will ever come in Georgia until the state controls her railroads instead of the railroads running the state. And therefore we say, Georgia needs a trust-buster."

The Journal quite agrees with its Atlanta contemporary that this is a good time for the people to elect to the governorship of Georgia "a trust-buster of the LaFolette type""

Fortunately for Georgia, she has such a man at hand, already announced as a candidate and approved by a large majority, we believe, of the presses and people of the state. That man and candidate is

HON. CLARK HOWELL OF FULTON.

In order that our esteemed Atlanta colleague may have further information and warrant to continue this urgent demand for "some man like LaFolette, of Wisconsin," The Journal takes this occasion to present to it and the people of Georgia the direct testimony of Governor LaFolette himself, in a letter written to Rev. Sam Jones concerning the latter's previous declaration that he understood Governor LaFollette to be looking with interest toward Mr. Howell's candidacy. After reading Sam Jones' letter 'To the People of Georgia,' Governor LaFollette wrote as follows:

WHAT LA FOLLETTE SAYS OF HOWELL:

(Extract from letter from Hon. Robert M. LaFollette, governor of Wisconsin, to Rev. Sam Jones.)

"I am very glad indeed if anything I have said regarding the candidacy of Clark Howell, for the governorship of Georgia, has been of benefit, and I only regret that the reference to my attitude, favorable to his candidacy, was so indirect. If I can be of assistance to him in any way, do not hesitate to call on me.

"The editorials in The Constitution last fall with reference to the Wisconsin situation were most effective and were very useful to us. Our leading paper, The Milwaukee Free Press, made excellent use of a number of them, and they assisted us very greatly. The friends of good government in Wisconsin feel well acquainted with the editor of The Constitution and his candidacy for the governorship of Georgia will be watched with great interest by them. Problems you are dealing with in Georgia are the same problems we have in Wisconsin, which makes it doubly interesting to us.

"That Mr. Howell may succeed is my earnest desire, and I have faith to believe he will, for Georgia, in the opinion of the northwesterners, is one of the leading states in the south, and we expect her to point the way for others in that section.

(Signed) "R. M. LA FOLLETTE."

Testimony like the above from the most typical and nationally famous "trust-buster" of the nation, while not intended by him to be an intrusion upon the freedom of choice of Georgians, is nevertheless a valuable, significant and generous tribute from one genuinely popular publicist to another who stands in the same relation to great public questions of modern moment. It is a testimony which we feel sure the mass of democratic voters in Georgia will not be slow to appreciate and indorse.

GOVERNOR FOLK AS A WITNESS.

In addition to the testimony of Governor LaFollette, we may also call to the stand Governor Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, who is a great democratic exemplar of antagonism to the ills of politics against which the masses protest. Praise from such a man, whose interest in pure and popular administration is not confined to his own state, but goes out in sympathy to his fellow-citizens whenever real reforms are needed, is not to be lightly esteemed. In his letter to Rev. Sam Jones, he says:

"In this connection, I notice that Hon. Clark Howell, of The Atlanta Constitution, is a candidate for governor of Georgia. I have not forgotten how The Constitution, by editorials, day after day, aided me when I needed it most. While I only met Mr. Howell once, from what I know of him and from what I have read of his writings, I hope he will succeed in his ambition to the governorship of Georgia.

(Signed) "JOS. W. FOLK."

It is greatly to the good of Georgia politics to have the able Atlanta Journal take position so strongly in favor of a trust-buster who can and does stand equal-footed with LaFollette and Folk. Now that it has their witness to the sufficiency of Mr. Howell to fill the requirements they would themselves demand in a gubernatorial candidate if they were Georgians, it should be an easy and graceful thing for The Atlanta Journal to also indorse its distinguished fellow-citizen for the governorship in next year's primary.

Since its demand, above fully quoted, has been so happily answered by the chief ideal reformer it named, we hope yet to see it adopt the logical course and help to make Mr. Howell one of the exemplary trio of which LaFollette and Folk are the other two.

At any rate, we believe that will be the final action of a large majority of the democratic voters of Georgia.

Jordan's Mistake.

(From The Albany Herald.)

In The Atlanta Journal of yesterday afternoon Hon. Harvie Jordan, president of the Southern Cotton Association, makes an attack upon Commissioner of Agriculture O. B. Stevens, in which he undertakes to make it appear that the commissioner of agriculture is in collusion with the fertilizer companies against the farmers.

As is well known to the public, the sales of fertilizers in Georgia this year, as shown by the sales of tags by the department of agriculture, exceed those for last year. This is contrary to the plans and pledges made and entered into by the farmers' organization of which Mr. Jordan is the official head to reduce the cotton crop and the sale of fertilizers as well, and, betraying a feeling of keen disappointment at the outcome President Jordan undertakes to place the blame on Commissioner Stevens, directly charging him with "undertaking to apologize for or stand by the fertilizer companies in the reckless waste of tags this season, and to admit that the same condition of affairs has been going on every year."

Commissioner Stevens has explained to President Jordan and the public that his department has sold fertilizer tags in the usual way, and as the law directs, this year, as heretofore, and if the fertilizer companies have called for and purchased more tags than they did last year the supposition is that they have sold more fertilizers. The unreasonableness and unfairness of President Jordan's attack is in his wanting to hold Commissioner Stevens responsible for this state of facts and in trying to make it appear that there has been collusion of some sort and a reckless waste of tags on the part of the fertilizer companies which have to pay the state for them.

It is unfortunate that Mr. Jordan should have made this attack upon Commissioner Stevens at this time and in the way he has chosen. It is more than unfortunate—it is a mistake and Mr. Jordan will himself realize it if he is honest with himself after he has reflected over the matter. In the first place, President Jordan's attack is aimed at the best friend the farmers have in Georgia—a man who has been identified with the farmers all his life and has been conspicuously loyal to their best interests at all times, not only in his official capacity, but in his private life.

And, in the second place, the farmers of Georgia are not going to believe Mr. Jordan's charges expressed and implied, and the result will be reactionary and the effect the reverse of what Mr. Jordan probably expected when framing and promulgating his indictment.

In this view of the case—and that's the way we see it—Mr. Jordan's attack on Commissioner Stevens will be reactionary and the Southern Cotton Association will suffer more than Commissioner Stevens will be injured.

Wasting Tags and Words.

(From The Augusta Chronicle.)

The fact—if it is a fact—that certain fertilizer manufacturers have been wasting the fertilizer tags which they bought from the state of Georgia for use during the present season, has led to a somewhat acrimonious controversy between President Harvie Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Growers' Association, and Commissioner of Agriculture Stevens; the former accusing the latter of defending the fertilizer manufacturers, because he made what appeared to be the somewhat reasonable explanation that this alleged waste of tags was doubtless due to the carelessness of employees, and the latter asserting that President Jordan is merely trying to find a scapegoat for the failure of the Cotton Growers' Association to achieve any practical results in the present holding movement; Commissioner Stevens adding that President Jordan is also presumably making in this instance a desperate effort to earn that $5,000 salary which he receives as president of the Southern Cotton Growers' Association.

The latter remark is unkind, to say the least of it; as unkind as President Jordan's criticism would seem to be uncalled for. President Jordan has made the statement that fertilizer tags had been found in empty freight cars in various parts of the state "into lots of 100 and 1,000; by the peck and by the bushel." When his attention was called to this rather remarkable statement and his department asked to thwart what appeared to President Jordan to be an effort on the part of fertilizer manufacturers to "bear" the cotton market, by making it appear that a great amount of fertilizer is being bought for this year's crop, Commissioner Stevens, who differs from Mr. Jordan in that he is an intensely practical man, merely stated that he could only suppose the alleged waste of tags was due to the carelessness of employees.

Whereupon President Jordan undertook to criticise Commissioner Stevens quite severely for having "prejudged the case," and almost intimating that the commissioner is in league with the fertilizer manufacturers in their alleged effort to "bear" the cotton market. Either of which assertions sounds quite as plausible as the other. In the first place, the fertilizer manufacturers, who depend mainly upon the prosperity of the southern cotton planter for their own prosperity, and who have already hundreds of thousands of dollars tied up in dealers and planters' notes, are undertaking to "bear" the price of cotton, thereby ruining the cotton planter and fertilizer dealer and rendering their notes practically worthless. And in the second place, Mr. Stevens, who is himself one of the largest cotton planters in the south, is interested in aiding the fertilizer manufacturers to reduce the value of his own crop.

Candidly, we do not recall having seen, in a long while, anything quite so illogical—unless it be some of the plans set forth a few months ago for reversing the laws of supply and demand and forcing the price of cotton back to 10 cents merely by electing officers and passing resolutions.

We regret, however, that Commissioner Stevens allowed himself to be piqued into referring to President Jordan's $5,000 salary; it added nothing to the argument to mention this particular matter—and, besides, we have no doubt President Jordan is doing about as much as would be possible for any man to do to earn that snug sum when there really isn't very much to be done except make speeches, issue proclamations and shoot to "hit if it's a deer and miss if it's a calf."

If, perchance, President Jordan thinks it also a part of his duty to "jump on" the agricultural department of Georgia about something or other, why there is no reason in the world why Commissioner Stevens should take the matter too seriously. The people of Georgia have repeatedly shown that they are pretty well satisfied with the workings of that department, and Commissioner Stevens can well afford to look to the people rather than to Mr. Jordan for approval.

However, if it is really true that the fertilizer manufacturers, either through design or the carelessness of employees, are wasting tags that cost them in cold cash a cent apiece, it can do no harm to call their attention to the fact that they are either very foolish or very careless.

In the meantime, if the farmers of the south will plant a reasonable amount of cotton, they will receive a reasonable price for it; if they plant less than is needed, they will receive an even higher price, but if they plant more than is needed they will receive a very small price for it—and nothing that the fertilizer manufacturers may do, nor the Harvie Jordans may say, nor the Theodore Prices proclaim will alter in the least this inexorable law of supply and demand.

Still, it is just as well not to waste the tags.

JOHNSON ISSUES STRONG APPEAL

President of Georgia Division Tells How Success May be Won.

President M. L. Johnson, of the Georgia division of the Southern Cotton Association, has written a strong appeal to the farmers of Georgia urging thorough and active local organizations as the best means by which the success of the movement for which the association stands may be achieved.

Following is President Johnson's statement:

"Editor Constitution: As has been so often said—but which probably cannot be too often repeated, till every citizen of the south is made to realize sufficiently the great importance of our work, so that he will not be content till he has signed himself with us—that the great purpose and work of the Southern Cotton Association, through its various state divisions, is the ultimate commercial emancipation of the cotton growing states of the union.

"Our information and observation is that there is hardly a doubt that the output of cotton this year will be less by 25 per cent compared with last year. I am forced to this conclusion for several reasons. First, there is a very material reduction in the acreage; second, there is a greater reduction in fertilizer under cotton; third, we are two or more weeks later in getting the crop off. Hence with a crop year the equal of last, there will be two weeks of the crop cut off, even with frost no earlier than last. I further hold, considering those states which do not plant cotton without using commercial fertilizers, considering also the tendency to intensify cotton culture and cotton cultivation, that when the final information is had it will be found that the acreage is cut, almost, if not fully, as much as fertilizer; then how can the crop possibly be within 25 per cent of last year? Then, suppose we have such a year as 1903-04, when with 26,907,000 acres we only made 10,011,374 bales. Now, consider that even Mr. Price figures a reduction of acreage of 14 per cent, we will, as compared to last year, have only about, in round numbers, 26,000,000 acres this year.

"Now, with the indicated large consumption, even with the surplus we have, and the prospective reduction of this year's output, what shall the business men of the south do? If we add, by organization and management of the distress cotton and surplus, 1-2 cent per pound to a 10,000,000 bale crop, we will make $25,000,000, if 1 cent $50,000,000, if 2 cents $100,000,000, if 3 cents $150,000,000, which is about $15 per bale, as compared with the present price. Let me ask then of each farmer, large and small, is it not worth striving for? We can, by united action, add to the volume of the south's circulating medium and business the enormous sum of $150,000,000. Suppose it should cost us $1,000,000 to do this, could you invest that amount in any other business at such a profit? If so, I would like to know of it.

"How can it be done? As I see it, only in two ways: By thorough, compact organizations in every cotton growing county in the south, not of farmers only, but every man of whatever business; second, by such management of the present surplus and the distress cotton of this present crop as will force the price from its present low stage—below cost of production—to the living, remunerative price of 10 cents.

"To this end, I appeal to each cotton grower, to see to it this one year, that his farm is self-sustaining—raise everything needed on your farm on which you will make a large net saving—besides enhancing the value of each bale of cotton you make. Go in debt just as little as possible so that when you reach next fall, gather your crop and get it ready for market, it will be yours, and you can sell or not, as the price suits you; not some one else, who otherwise can compel you to sell it at whatever price it is then bringing. Let the farmers of the south rise in might and rid themselves of debt wherever it exists. Rise in the power of your setrength, and rend assunder these shackles wherever found and free yourselves from an accursed slavery, more damaging to a man and his manhood than any which has ever existed. I appeal to every business man in the state to aid me in this great work, and we will make Georgia and the south what they should be, and have a right to be under the "lavish hands" of a Kind Providence.

"M. L. JOHNSON, President."

TALKS ABOUT ATLANTA

Dublin Times: Atlanta's much-talked-of and long-needed union station is to be ready for use May 15.

Augusta Herald: Athletics seem to prosper in Atlanta. This is possibly due to the fact that the folks have to wrestle so hard for a living there.

Augusta Herald: Atlanta drew an Italian nobleman the other day and all the folks up there ate macarino and spaghetti in honor of the event.

Mansfield Leader: Atlanta's baseball aggregation was cartooned in The Constitution as being a "hot bunch." We hope they will keep their steam up till the season is over.

Thomaston Times: Atlanta is looking to the opening of the new depot with about as much interest as if it were a horse show. And indeed she should. No city in the south needed a new depot more than Atlanta.

Americus Times-Recorder: An Atlanta judge has handed down a decision that $1.80 is quite enough for a man to pay for his wife's Easter bonnet. Every man is fully convinced of this, but no woman is.

To the Lady of the Household

Read this through. We offer valuable information regarding purity of meats, which you certainly should possess.

In Georgia you are unprotected by Pure Food Laws, therefore are a possible victim of the dangerous adulterations practiced in Hams, Bacon, Lard, etc., practices carried to such an alarming extent as to make pure food legislation a positive necessity nearly all over the United States. This fact throws the adulterators back upon the unprotected communities to get rid of their spurious goods.

But if you want a guarantee of the very highest excellence, sterling purity and most appetizing flavor, call for "Dove Brand" meats. Look for the "Dove" brand, stand by your demands, and get it.

STATE GOSSIP CAUGHT IN CAPITOL CORRIDORS

HON. L. M. BRAND, mayor of Lawrenceville, who was in the city yesterday, stated briefly the staus of what is known as the Lawrenceville jug law case which is attracting just now so much attention throughout Georgia.

"The status of the Lawrenceville whisky ordinance," said he, "is simply this: Lawrenceville and Gwinnett county are prohibition territories. Rose & Co., of Atlanta, were shipping jugs of whisky to Lawrenceville every day of the week, including Sunday, and the people wanted it stopped. As mayor of Lawrenceville I drafted the ordinance which was enacted with the view of checking this nuisance. The ordinance does not prevent liquor being shipped there, but imposes a license for the privilege. The express and railroad companies submitted to the ordinance and declined to carry any more liquor into the town. They refused to take out the license prescribed. They found public sentiment in the town back of the ordinance and its purpose and the companies are now willing to obey it. Rose & Co. filed a mandamus against the express company to compel it to carry the firm's shipments of liquor to Lawrenceville. The case was set for April 15, but I do not know when it will be tried.

"Lawrenceville is not a party to the suit, but, of course, is deeply interested. No whisky has been shipped there since the ordinance became a law. If the courts do not hold it valid the prohibition communities of Georgia will doubtless appeal to the general assembly for legislation authorizing the enactment by prohibition communities of such ordinances or to enact some general law like that in South Carolina which makes the place of delivery the place of sale. I am convinced the officials of the express company do not care to handle this jug business and will not do so unless compelled by law. Judging by the many inquiries we are receiving from other communities in the state there is a very deep-seated public interest in the Lawrenceville case."

Rate Hearing Tomorrow.

Railroad Commissioner Joseph M. Brown stated yesterday that no further communication has been received from the railroad officials regarding intrastate rates which are to be dealt with at the meeting on Wednesday, though a number of rates are still under consideration because the commission has asked still further reductions.

It is expected that the railroads will make their final answer in the matter tomorrow. It will then be possible for the commission to accept such concessions made by the railroads as prove satisfactory, and with regard to those which do not prove acceptable, it is expected the commission will issue a circular of its own putting the desired rates into effect. There are no other developments in the matter and, in fact, none are expected until the meeting of tomorrow, at which a final settlement will be insisted upon.

Wanted for Killing Negro.

Governor Terrell yesterday issued a requisition on Governor Broward, of Florida, for Arthur Sharp, a white man who is under arrest at Inverness, Fla., charged with the murder of a negro man in Montgomery county, Georgia, last December. The negro was engaged in a dispute with someone else, it is stated, when, without provocation, Sharp drew his pistol and shot him. Deputy Sheriff Daniel E. Morrison, of Montgomery county, was named as agent of the state to go to Inverness and bring Sharp back for trial.

A Good Appointment.

The Calhoun County Times has the following comment upon the appointment by Governor Terrell of Judge W. A. Little as judge of the Chattahoochee circuit:

"Governorq Terrell has appointed Judge W. A. Little, of Columbus, to succeed Judge W. B. Butt, recently deceased. This is a good appointment. By the way, no governor of Georgia has ever made a higher grade of appointments during his administration than our present chief executive. We cannot recall a poor appointment during Terrell's term of office."

FARMERS FEAR INSECTS' WORK

Cotton Being Killed in Madison County Cotton Fields.

Huntsville, Ala., May 8.—(Special.)—Farmers in the southwestern part of Madison county complain that a large percentage of their young cotton has been destroyed by a small species of insect bearing some resemblance to the boll weevil.

One farmer, Sam Latham, states that 20 acres in his cotton field have been completely ruined and others have suffered heavily.

A bottle of the insects has been sent to the agricultural department at Washington for classification.

PLANS ARE MADE FOR CONVENTION

Committee Arranges for Entertainment of Manufacturers.

Meeting Was Held Yesterday and an Outline Given of the Plans for the Entertainment of the Visitors to Atlanta Next Week.

Plans for the entertainment of visitors to Atlanta during the annual convention of the National Association of Manufacturers next week were discussed yesterday afternoon during a meeting in the rooms of the chamber of commerce, city hall building, by the local committee on entertainment, of which J. W. Pope is chairman.

It was decided to empower Chairman Pope to appoint three subcommittees, including the entire membership of the entertainment committee. One subcommittee will be in direct charge of the first evening of the convention period, which will be spent at the Capital City Club; another will be in charge of the barbecue on the second day, and the third will have charge of the third afternoon, which will be spent at the Piedmont Driving Club. The evening of the third day will be occupied by Hon. H. A. Metcalf, who will speak in the Grand.

The barbecue on the second day will be given during the early afternoon and will not interfere with the afternoon session of the association. Cars will be waiting for the visitors directly in front of the Grand and a quick run will be made by the specials to the grounds of the Cold Springs 'Cue Club. The party will return to the city in time for the afternoon session at 3 o'clock.

The entertainment committee also decided yesterday afternoon to request local manufacturers to maintain "open house" in their establishments during the convention period in order that visiting manufacturers may inspect the local plants.

Chairman Pope announced that about eighty-five ladies will be present during the convention.

TO CONSIDER MANY PAPERS

Ordinance Committee Will Have Busy Session This Afternoon.

For the purpose of considering measures that have been referred during the last two sessions of the general council the committee on ordinances, of which Councilman W. D. Ellis is chairman, will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the committee room at city hall. It is probable that it will be the most interesting session that has been held by the committee this year.

The most important of the ordinances to be acted upon is that one which provides that the city warden and city license inspector be elected by the general council instead of being appointed by the mayor. The terms of these two officials will expire on the first Monday of July.

The law at present provides that they be appointed by the mayor and the appointments ratified by the general council. During the past few years it has been usual for the city warden to be suggested to the mayor by the committee on hospitals and charities, but it is understood that the suggestion will not be made to Mayor Woodward by the present committee.

The ordinance committee will also have for consideration today a measure which regulates the hacks of the city, which divides them into first class and second class hacks, and which provides a scale of prices to be charged by them.

In joint session with the police committee, of which Councilman Oldknow is chairman, the ordinance committee will have to consider an extension of the retail liquor limits on Madison avenue for the benefit of the new passenger station, but it is not known whether this is to be acted upon today.

The meeting of the ordinance committee this afternoon will probably be well attended, as there is much interest in the measures that are pending.

OILY GIFT IS DISCUSSED.

Lively Time Yesterday at Meeting of Presbyterian Ministers' Association.

The Presbyterian ministers had a lively and animated session yesterday morning in the parlor of the First Presbyterian church.

The subject for the discussion of the morning was on the acceptance or refusal of the $100,000 recently offered by Mr. Rockefeller to the various mission boards.

The sentiment of those present was widely at variance and quite a heated discussion took place. Rev. A. R. Holderby, one of the leaders of the discussion, took the ground that the church could not prove that the money was tainted money and therefore could not conscientiously refuse it.

Dr. Holderby still further argued that the church could not go behind the motives of Mr. Rockefeller in giving the proffered money.

Taken altogether, the meeting was one of the most enjoyable and spirited held for some time by the Presbyterian ministers' association. At the close of the session, though no vote on the matter was taken, it was estimated that a goodly majority thought the acceptance of the gift the right policy to have pursued.

Hargis Released on Bond.

Lexington, Ky., May 8.—Judge James Hargis, whose trial for the murder of James Cockrill resulted in a hung jury here Saturday, was granted bail today by Circuit Judge Parker in the sum of $25,000, with John and Floyd Day, of Jackson, as bondsmen. The bond was made out and Judge Hargis was released.

BOARD TO ELECT NEW PRESIDENT

Dr. Landrum Is Mentioned as Successor to Pollock.

Others Are Talked of in Connection with Presidency of Mercer University—Vice President Kilpatrick and Dr. B. D. Gray Mentioned.

The board of trustees of Mercer University, will meet in Macon on June 5, for the purpose of selecting a successor to President P. D. Pollock, of that institution, who recently resigned on account of ill health. Dr. Pollock, who has served the university for about ten years, was a most able man and the trustees regret very deeply the fact that they are compelled to give him up.

At the last meeting of the trustees, of which board Hon. J. G. McCall, of Macon, is chairman, a committee was appointed to make a recommendation as to the successor to President Pollock. A member of that committee, who lives in Atlanta, stated yesterday that no action had yet been taken by it, and that the field is sill open.

Several names are known, however, to be under consideration. It is stated that the committee would not hesitate to recommend Rev. Dr. W. W. Landrum, pastor of the First Baptist church of Atlanta, in the event he would signify his willingness to accept. However, the matter has not reached that stage, and it may be the latter part of the month before any decision is arrived at.

Other names under consideration, it is said, are those of Dr. B. D. Gray, secretary of the Baptist home mission board, whose office and home are in Atlanta, and Vice President W. H. Kilpatrick, of the university.

Mercer is the well known Baptist educational institution of the south, and the Baptist denomination everywhere, as well as others, will be interested in learning the action to be taken in this matter by the board of trustees.

PROTEST MADE BY CONTRACTOR

Paving Company of Georgia Displeased by Mitchell Street.

Complications regarding the Mitchell street asphalt paving have arisen, and it may be that there will be a misunderstanding between city officials and the contractor. The Asphalt Paving Company of Georgia, through its president, S. H. Venable, has virtually put the city upon notice that the contractor does not intend to be bound by the guarantee upon the paving because of the condition of the street.

The letter from Mr. Venable to the mayor and general council has been filed with City Clerk Campbell, and it will be read during the next session of council.

Mr. Venable declares that the street has been covered with trenches by the gas, water and condult laborers, and that the sewer diggers have contributed. By making these trenches in the street, he declares, the earth is made loose and it will sink. He declares that this will cause the concrete to crack, thus injuring the foundation for the asphalt.

The asphalt company also requests the city to prevent trolley cars from operating over the street while the concrete is being laid, for the reason that the jarring from he trolley cars will unsettle the concrete.

Mr. Venable declares that the condition of the street is now by no means what it was when the Asphalt Paving Company of Georgia entered into a guarantee for the paving that will be laid and such conditions as now exist were not anticipated by the bondsmen of the company.

The communication does not declare that the paving company will take any action, but concludes with the declaration that the general council should be put upon notice regarding the prevailing state of affairs.

ACCIDENT ON THIRD RAIL.

One Person Fatally Injured and a Score Badly Bruised.

Chicago, May 8.—In an accident on the Elgin and Chicago third rail electric line near Wayne, one man was fatally injured, two were seriously hurt and a score of passengers badly bruised.

William Murphy, a one time pitcher in a professional baseball league, is the most seriously injured. The motorman received serious injuries in jumping.

The two coaches on the third rail line were speeding along toward Chicago at the rate of 40 miles an hour. Near Wayne the cars went through a switch on to the Illinois Central tracks and struck a freight car.

SOON TO SELECT GORDON STATUE

Models Will be on Exhibition at State Capitol Tomorrow.

A design for the equestrian statue of General John B. Gordon, which is to adorn a prominent corner of the state capitol grounds, will be selected on Thursday of this week by the committee appointed for that purpose from the John B. Gordon Monument Association.

All of the designs for the Gordon monument to be submitted in this contest will be on exhibition tomorrow and Thursday in the hall of the house of representatives at the capitol, where the committee will gather on both days for the purpose of making a careful and minute study of them before arriving at a decision.

The designs in plaster to be submitted are five in number and two of them by J. Maxwell Miller, of Baltimore, and Solon Borglum, of New York, were on exhibition yesterday in the cloak room of the house. The other designs, which will be put in place today, are by William Slever, of Atlanta; F. W. Ruckstuhl, of New York, and W. M. Gaskill, of Albany, Ga.

The design by Mr. Miller shows General Gordon mounted on a horse with right foot advanced as if in slow motion. General Gordon has his hat on and field glasses in hand, as if looking over the field of battle. In Mr. Borglum's statue the horse is in repose. This design had not been quite completed yesterday, but Mr. Borglum was here working upon it.

The committee from the association by which a design for the monument will be selected is composed of A. C. Bruce, chairman; Captain R. E. Park, General Clement A. Evans, Julius L. Brown, Colonel J. S. Prather and Judge W. L. Calhoun, president of the association and ex-officio member of the committee.

The committee will spend two days inspecting these models, and on Thursday, it is expected, will reach a decision as to which one will be accepted. The committee, however, has the right to reject all designs and call for others, if it should see fit to do so.

The monument association now has $12,000 in hand for the purpose of purchasing this monument, which will be of bronze and heroic in size. This amount is still far from sufficient, but the association is still hard at work and expects to add considerable to the fund within the next few months.

SOCIETY

To Rev. and Mrs. Flinn.

REV. AND MRS. RICHARD ORME FLINN, who returned Saturday from an extended trip east and through Great Britain, will be tendered a reception Tuesday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock, by the Ladies' Aid Society of North Avenue Presbyterian church, of which Mr. Flinn is pastor. All members of the church are invited to be present, and an invitation has also been extended to the members of the Ponce de Leon Baptist church.

The elders of North avenue church with their wives, the deacons and their wives and the ladies executive board, are expected to act as a reception committee.

Dr. Turner to Lecture.

REV. W. P. TURNER, of the Japan mission of the Methodist church, will give his famous lecture, "A Trip through Japan," in the chapel of the First Methodist church this evening. The lecture will be fully illustrated by steroptican views and an interesting evening is promised those who attend. Admission will be free and all those interested in the work and the subject are invited to be present.

Skating Auditorium.

A NUMBER of parties of well known society people have been arranged for the skating auditorium on Peachtree street this morning. The amusement has become popular in social circles and there are many graceful skaters, particularly in the younger society set.

Ladies only will be admitted to the auditorium Tuesday and Thursday mornings and many large parties of ladies are present upon these occasions, when there are no spectators present to embarass the beginners.

To Mrs. Wilson.

MR. AND MRS. LOWRY ARNOLD entertained informally at dinner last evening at the Piedmont Driving Club in compliment to Mrs. Wilson, of New York, the guest of Mrs. Milton Dargan.

Covers were laid for twelve and the occasion was an exceptionally enjoyable one.

Tuesday morning Mrs. Milton Dargan will entertain at bridge for Mrs. Wilson. On Wednesday morning Mrs. J. Frank Meador will entertain twenty-five guests at a bowling party in compliment to Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Price Gilbert, of Columbus, who is visiting Mrs. Edward Peters. At 1 o'clock luncheon will be served at the club.

To Mrs. Lamar.

MRS. CHARLES GODFREY entertained a congenial party of twelve at a bowling party yesterday afternoon at the Piedmont Driving Club in compliment to Mrs. Walter Lamar, of Macon.

After the game tea was served on the terrace.

Mrs. Hollins Randolph will entertain at a buffet luncheon today at her home on Peachtree in compliment to Mrs. Lamar, and there are a number of other entertainments to be given her during the week.

Afternoon Reception.

THE congregation of St. Luke church has issued invitation to a reception Wednesday, May 10, from 5 until 7 o'clock in the guild room of St. Luke church.

The occasion is in compliment to Rev. and Mrs. C. Breckinridge Wilmer, and will be one of the enjoyable social events of the week.

Japanese Party.

MISS LILLIAN PEARCE, of Danville, Ky., who is visiting Mrs. Albert Perdue, Jr., will be the guest of honor at a Japanese party this afternoon, Mrs. Charles Goodman to be the hostess.

Mrs. Goodman's attractive home on Linden avenue will be appropriately decorated with Japanese lanterns, umbrellas, fans, etc. A Japanese game will be played and this idea will be carried out in the prizes and refreshments.

The guests invited to meet Miss Pearce are: Mrs. Joseph Rhodes, Mrs. Albert Perdue, Miss Maude Fuller, Miss May Haverty, Mrs. James H. Crawford, Miss Nellie Howell, Miss Julian Perdue, Misses Mary and Frances Pendleton, Miss Maybelle Haralson, Miss Marion Street, Miss Venice Walker.

Mrs. Jackson Entertains.

MRS. W. W. GORDON was the guest of honor at the 5 o'clock tea given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Henry S. Jackson, when as many as a hundred ladies enjoyed Mrs. Jackson's charming hospitality.

With Mrs. Gordon she received her guests in the drawing room, the circular end of the room where they stood banked in palms, white crystal vases filled with red carnations decorated the mantels and cabinets. Red shades softened the lights of the candelabras, the same effect in pale rose being carried out in the decorations of the library.

In the hallway the tall lamps had their shades of red, and there were beautiful palms to be seen on all sides.

In the dining room, where a delicious luncheon was served, the decorations were Japanese, and suggested all the picturesqueness of an Oriental salon.

Over the table was a large Japanese umbrella, from the stick of which hung fairy lanterns. The side lights and candleabras had their shades of Japanese silk, and palms and potted plants of tropical beauty further added to the picture.

In the center of the table was a tall Japanese vase filled with pink hydrangeas of exquisite tint, and sprays of asparagus fern softening the whole.

Mrs. A. W. Calhoun presided at the punch bowl, and assisting in the entertainment of the guests were Mrs. Robert F. Maddox, Mrs. Robert Lowry, Mrs. Floyd McRae, Mrs. John M. Slaton, Mrs. Joseph Thompson, Mrs. Frank Hawkins, Mrs. John Grant, Mrs. James McKeldin, Mrs. W. H. Kiser, Mrs. Wilmer Moore, Mrs. Don A. Pardee.

Mrs. Jackson was as always a charming hostess, and wore a becoming toilet in blue silk mull painted in roses, the corsage trimmed in lace.

Mrs. Gordon, who is one of the most distinguished looking women in southern society, was notably handsome in a Parisian toilet of ciel blue lisse exquisitely applied in French lace.

Mrs. Robert Maddox wore cream colored embroidered batiste. Mrs. John Grant wore white lisse painted on sprays of pink flowers and trimmed in lace.

Mrs. John Marshall Slaton wore cream colored chantilly lace. Mrs. A. W. Calhoun's handsome gown was of silver gray messeline silk, with trimming of lace. Mrs. Frank Hawkins wore Saxe blue silk, the skirt and waist elaborately applied in lace. Her hat of black chip was wreathed in roses, and adjusted in the back with a cluster of plumes in Saxe blue. Mrs. Joseph Thompson wore with a princesse gown of white lisse painted in roses an empire coat of French applique lace. Mrs. James McKeldin wore white batiste and lace embroidered in pink roses. Mrs. W. H. Kiser wore white mull and lace.

Mrs. Wilmer Moore wore white chiffon silk trimmed in black thread lace.

Mrs. Inman Sanders wore pale lilac silk, her hat of white lace, trimmed in lilacs.

Mrs. John R. Hopkins wore white handkerchief linen, the entire gown embroidered in sprays of flowers of raised design. Her hat of white lace was trimmed in roses.

Mrs. James Dickey wore pale gray panne crepe, her hat of white neapolitan straw trimmed in pale blue plumes.

Mrs. Charles Sciple wore pale blue silk with picture hat the same color.

To Miss Pierce.

AMONG the parties in honor of Miss Pierce, of Kentucky, the guest of Mrs. J. A. Perdue, Jr., a pretty one will be given by Miss May Haverty tomorrow morning, when she will entertain Mrs. Perdue and Miss Pierce, Mrs. Robert Davis, Mrs. William Hahr, Miss Katherine Lovette, Miss Gertrude Lipphart, Mrs. John Hill, Miss Kate O'Brien, Miss Louise Dooly, Miss Florine Richardson, Miss Lillian Green, Miss Agnes Ludson, Mrs. Goodrum, Misses Ella and Nell Baker, Miss Sarah Collier.

Cox-Coleman.

MR. AND MRS. ALBERT HILL COX announce the engagement of their daughter, Apsyllah Juliet, to Mr. Cornelius Cunningham Coleman, of San Antonio, Tex., the wedding to take place at the residence of the bride's parents early in June.

At the Driving Club.

THE annual election of the Piedmont Driving Club taking place this afternoon will be followed by a brilliant reception and buffet luncheon, the occasion to be one of the most enjoyable of the season at hand.

Mr. and Mrs. James McKeldin, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Dargan, Mr. and Mrs. S. Y. Tupper, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Smith will receive the guests and every arrangement is being made by the club management to insure the success of the evening.

After supper there will be dancing in the New York building. Among the out-of-town visitors to add to the social interest of the occasion will be Mrs. Frank Powell, of London, the guest of Mrs. Inman Sanders; Mrs. W. W. Gordon, the guest of Mrs. Jackson; Mrs. Wilson, the guest of Mrs. Gordon; Mr. and Mrs. Price Gilbert, of Columbus, the guests of Mrs. Peters; Mrs. George Black, of Hartford, the guest of Mrs. Crandall; Mrs. Walter White, of Englewood, N. J., the guest of Mrs. Horner.

To Mrs. Black.

MRS. GEORGE CRANDALL entertained a congenial party of ladies at bridge yesterday afternoon in honor of her beautiful guest, Mrs. Black, of Hartford, Conn.

The ladies assembled at 3 o'clock and at 5 o'clock a dainty luncheon was served from a table artistically adorned in flowers.

The top score at bridge was made by Mrs. Edward S. Munford, the prize, a white empire fan, spangled in silver.

Mrs. Crandall wore a becoming toilet in white mull elaborately trimmed in lace. Mrs. Black wore pale pink chiffon painted in roses and trimmed in lace.

Among the visiting ladies present was Mrs. H. R. Wilson, of New York, Mrs. Dargan's guest, wearing violet chiffon cloth and lace and a hat of violets. Mrs. Walter White was handsomely gowned in white veiling rich in a hand embroidery of white silk threads.

Among the guests were Mrs. F. B. Dancy, Mrs. Charles McGehee, Mrs. George Dexter, Mrs. Louis Gholstin, Mrs. Charles Conklin, Mrs. Theodore Hammond, Mrs. Don Pardee, Mrs. Harry Atkinson, Mrs. Alston, Mrs. Henry Tanner, Mrs. Dan Harris, Mrs. Charles Sciple, Mrs. Edward Peters, Mrs. George Howard, Mrs. Preston Arkwright, Mrs. Horner, Mrs. White, of New Jersey; Mrs. George Traylor, Mrs. Edward Munford, Mrs. J. C. Hunter, Mrs. J. Frank Meador, Mrs. Houston, Mrs. Samuel Weyman, Mrs. Rotf Sims, Mrs. James Nunnally, Mrs. Lewis Beck, Mrs. Milton Dargan, Mrs. Wilson, of New York; Mrs. Edwin Ehney, Mrs. William Reynolds, Mrs. Edward Brown, Mrs. Walter Lamar, Mrs. William H. Kiser, Mrs. Clarence Angier, Mrs. Franklin Mikell, Mrs. Richard Harris, Mrs. Clarence Knowles, Miss Addie Maude, Miss Virginia Arnold, Mrs. S. Y. Tupper, Mrs. James Dickey, Jr., Mrs. Luther Read and Mrs. J. R. Polak.

MRS. LONGSTREET WINS SUIT.

Is Successful in Big Land Suit in Hart County.

Hartwell, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Quite an interesting case was tried at Carnesville, Ga., in Franklin superior court last week with Mrs. Ellen Longstreet, widow of General Longstreet and postmistress at Gainesville, Ga., as plaintiff and J. D. Pulliam as defendant in a contention over land. It was a pretty battle and hard fought, consuming two days. Mrs. Longstreet was represented by A. G. & Julian McCurry, of the Hartwell bar, and Judge W. R. Little of Carnesville. Judge James B. Jones, of Toccoa, appeared for Mr. Pulliam. The jury returned a verdict sustaining Mrs. Longstreet's contention in the matter. Strong and eloquent speeches were made on both sides of the case. Colonel A. G. McCurry spoke for Mrs. Longstreet and Judge Jones for the defense.

GEORGIA LINE MAY BE FIXED

After Eighteen Years Dispute With Tennessee Will be Settled.

After eighteen years there is now a possibility that the disputed boundary line between Georgia and Tennessee across Lookout Mountain may be settled.

Governor Terrell yesterday received a communication from Governor Cox, of Tennessee, stating that the Tennessee legislature, which has just adjourned, had passed an act providing for the appointment of three commissioners to meet a like number from Georgia and run the disputed boundary line between Dade county, Georgia, and Hamilton and Marion counties, Tennessee. This disputed boundary line runs right across Lookout Mountain.

It was way back in 1887 that the Georgia legislature passed a similar bill providing for the appointment of three commissioners, and making an appropriation to pay the expenses of the work. This appropriation was not used within the time required by law and of course reverted into the general fund in the treasury.

Governor Cox informed Governor Terrell that he was ready to appoint the commissioners for Tennessee at any time that would be agreeable to Georgia. Governor Terrell has written to Representative W. W. Cureton and Ordinary William O. Reese, of Dade county, asking them if there is any immediate necessity for having this boundary line dispute settled. If there is, he will make the appointments at once and trust to the legislature to make an appropriation to pay the expenses of the commission. If there is no immediate hurry, he will await the meeting of the general assembly and lay the matter before it for whatever action it may deem proper, particularly in view of the fact that an appropriation will be needed to pay the expenses of the work.

ANNUAL PICNIC OF Y. M. C. A.

Outing Will Be Held at Tallulah Falls Next Thursday.

The annual picnic of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held next Thursday at Tallulah Falls, Ga.

This picnic is given by the Social Club and the ladies' auxiliary of the association and the indications are that it will be the most successful ever held by the association, and one of the most brilliant affairs of the coming season.

Two years ago the association held its first picnic at Tallulah Falls, six cars having taken the picnickers there. Last year, the first one having been such a great success, it took nine cars to handle the crowd.

This year it is expected that fully twelve cars will be necessary to take the large crowd of picnickers to Tallulah Falls and seat them comfortably. The Southern railway and the Tallulah Falls railway have promised to run the trains on schedule time.

An official of the Young Men's Christian Association will be on each car, and perfect order and comfort is assured. Tickets are on sale at Brown & Allen's, corner of Whitehall and Alabama streets. The members of the Social Club, the ladies' auxiliary and the secretaries of the association will also provide tickets to those desiring them.

SCHILLER DAY TO BE OBSERVED

Germans of Atlanta to Honor Greatest of Their Poets.

The hundredth anniversary of the birthday of the greatest of German poets, Frederick von Schiller, will be celebrated tonight at the Turn Verein hall on North Forsyth street by the Germans of the city, and their American friends.

Schiller is considered by most critics the first poet of Germany, although some divide the honor with Goethe. The poems of the former are household rhymes in the fatherland, and that the hundredth anniversary of his birthday will be celebrated in a fitting manner by his countrymen goes without saying.

The invitation committee has been hard at work recently, and one of the largest crowds that ever gathered in the Turn Verein hall will probably come out tonight to do honor to the memory of Schiller. The committee consists of the following: Henry Weinmeister, Carl Kuebler, George Mau, John Pappa, J. W. Otto, Mrs. Carl Weitnauer and Miss Rosa Denck.

The programme committee has also been working zealously, and as a result of its efforts some of the best and most distinguished scholars, speakers and readers have signified their willingness to participate in the exercises.

Governor Terrell will deliver an address. The German consul, Dr. Erich Zoepffel-Quellenstein, will also speak. The latter's address will probably be delivered in German. Wurm's orchestra will furnish sweet music for the occasion, and after the regular programme a buffet supper will be served.

Particulars as to admission to the celebration tonight can be secured at the stores of George Mau, Nos. 114 and 177 Whitehall street, and 142 Peachtree street; also from any member of the invitation committee.

The programme is divided in two parts. It is as follows:

PART I.

(Commencing at 8 p. m. sharp.)

Overture, "William Tell," Rossini—By Wurm's orchestra.

Address—Governor Terrell.

"Refterlied," by Spielter—Sung by the Turner Gesangverein.

Soprano solo, "Save Me, O God," Rapdegger—Sung by Mrs. H. L. Wilson.

Recitation of parts of Schiller's "Die Glocke"—Mrs. Dr. Toepel.

"An die Frende," Volkssong, Schiller—Turner Gesangverein.

Finale—Wurm's orchestra.

PART II.

Buffet supper, recitations, songs and short talks. The following well-known German songs will be rendered by those assembled:

"Die Wacht am Rhein."

"Der Liedenbaum."

"Der Schuetz," from Schiller's "Wilhelm Tell."

IN HONOR OF JUDGE REAGAN.

Tige Anderson Camp Passes Resolutions of Sympathy and Respect.

Relative to the death, March 6, in Palestine, Texas, of Judge John H. Reagan, the last survivor of the confederate cabinet, Tige Anderson camp, United Confederate Veterans, passed the following resolutions at its last meeting:

"Be it resolved by camp Tige Anderson, No. 1455, United Confederate Veterans, in regular session convened that we hereby contribute our mite of respect to the memory of the last survivor of the confederate cabinet, and we tender to his family our profoundest condolence, and to our comrades everywhere our deepest sympathy. Let us emulate his many virtues, and when the 'roll is called up yonder' may we meet and greet him again."

LANARK-ON-GULF.

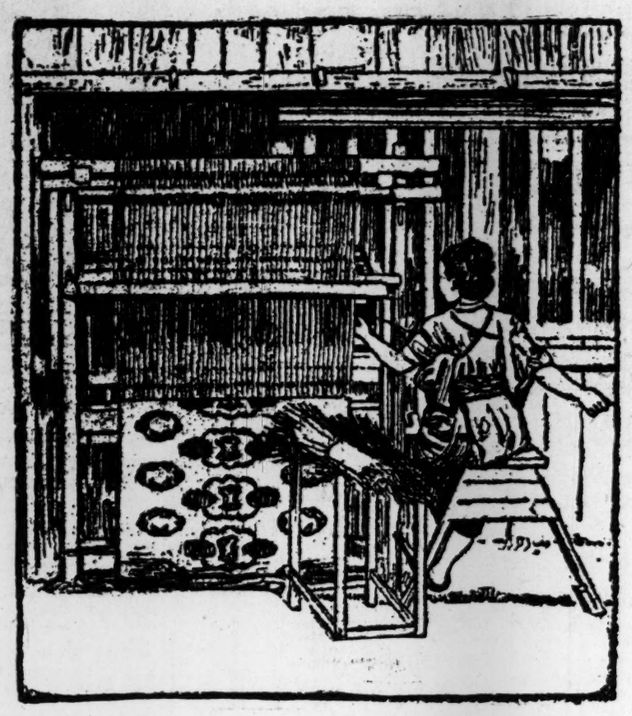

A Party Will Leave Next Wednesday for That Place.

A party will go to "Lanark-on-the-Gulf" on next Wenesday, the 10th instant. Trains on Central road will leave car shed at 12:10 o'clock. Can get in sleeper at 9 o'clock p. m. For rates, apply to M. L. Thrower, first floor Prudential building. If you want an enjoyable trip, join the party.

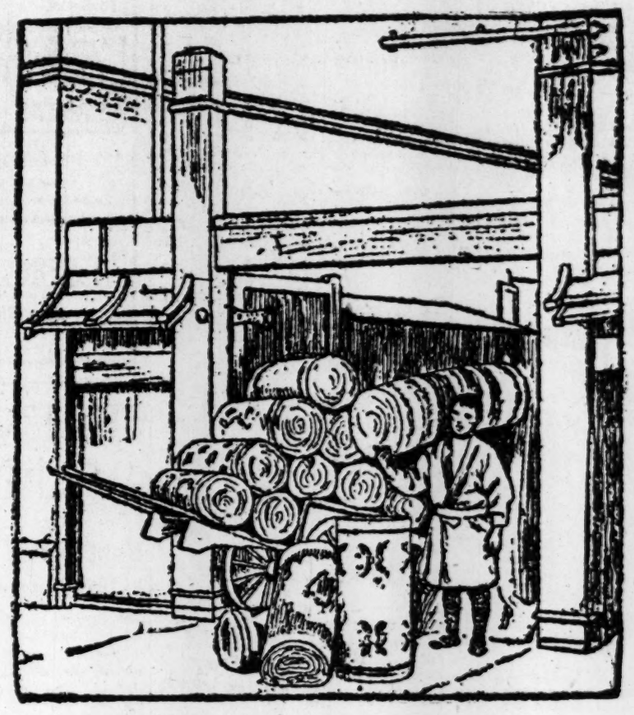

Incendiary Fires Barn.

Covington, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Will Vining, a well-to-do planter, of Newton county factory district, had his barn, together with two fine mules and a considerable amount of corn and forage, destroyed by fire at a late hour last night. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin.

Weaving Mattings For Us.

Shipping Mattings To Us.

China Straw Mattings Japanese

Whatever you do--don't buy OLD Mattings. They are not worth the labor of tacking down. Some dealers collect old Mattings; others have Mattings that grow old on their hands.

You know how we do the Matting business. Our stock is secured by direct importation--fresh each season. This method eliminates the in-between profit equation. When tacked down--our Mattings--lie flat--their surfaces stay smooth and firm. The daily contact of the broom will not wear upon them. That's because they are fresh--new. The resiliency of the straw resists the effect of hard usage by yielding--giving to every strain, instead of snapping, cracking or breaking.

In the beginning we mark our Mattings at fair prices. Some stores have a "sharp" system. Exorbitant profits are asked at first. Frequently double just rates. That leaves a wide margin for "reductions." The method is deceptive. Hence our original prices are much less than the "cut" prices elsewhere.

Rugs for Summer Homes

Every Rug is fresh from mills of the highest reputation. The qualities are not seconds--but emphatically FIRSTS--none better of their class made. No use mincing words. We want you to know that the doors of this store are closed against inferior merchandise of ALL kinds. That's worth remembering in case any one pooh-poohs the following quotations and by innuendo intimates they are so slow because the grades are questionable. Many who do not see any business sense in meeting our prices fall into the habit of decrying our qualities. However, we are quite willing to trust your judgment. BE SURE TO EXAMINE AND COMPARE.

Birmingham, May 8.—(Special.)—Battery errors for one thing were responsible for the shut out that Atlanta received this afternoon at the hands of the Coal Barons, but "Ginger" Clarke held the heavy hitters on the Firecrackers them down to two safe drives.

Jackson, who has hitherto proved a jonah to the Barons, got his bumps this afternoon, and lost the game by his promiscous gifts of the initial bag. He walked nine men, four of them in one inning, made a wild pitch and threw one ball wild.

Only three of the Atlanta team reached first base. Bob Stafford was there twice, once on a hit, once on a base on balls, and Krug reached second on his long two-bagger, but he never got any further.

The Barons played a snappy game of ball, and sensational catches by Delehanty and Moore and a great stop by Ward were features. Crozier robbed the Barons of a couple of hits by brilliant work in the field.

In the third inning, with one man, out Jackson walked Hafford, advanced him to second on a wild pitch, then walked Hennessy and Ward. Vaughan dropped a neat bunt in front of the plate, Tafford scored and Vaughan reached first in safety, as no one covered the bag. Hennessy was forced out at the plate, and Ward scored on a passed ball by Archer.

In the eighth, with two out Delehanty hit safe and stole second. He scored on Smith's hard-hit ball to Stafford, which bounded badly. Atlanta's only chance to win was in the seventh, when Krug slashed the ball to center for two bags, but he died on second, as the next two men were easy outs.

Had Jackson been able to control the ball the score would have been 1 to 0 in favor of the Barons. C. Smith will pitch tomorrow for Atlanta, and Fitzpatrick or Pylant for Birmingham. Archer was put oct of the game for kicking. Attendance 1,931.

PROMINENT ATLANTIANS LEAVE SATURDAY

GREAT FISHING FROLIC

Cumberland Island Will Be the Mecca for Many Famous Sportsmen of This City Next Week—This Famous Resort Proves Too Attractive to Seekers of the Finny Tribe.

Quite a party of prominent Atlantans will leave next Saturday night for Cumberland island to enjoy the fishing a few days, for which this famous resort is noted. A letter just received by one of the party from a friend at Cumberland states that never before in the history of this popular resort has the fishing been so good and the catch so varied. This season, the first for some years past, quantities of prawn are found in the inlet, and as every sportsman knows, when prawn are plentiful you will always find the large fish running. Many parties are being made up at present to visit Cumberland about the middle of June. It is predicted that this season at Cumberland island will be the best since it became a resort. The plan adopted by Mr. Miller of making special rates to parties is meeting with pronounced success. Make up your party in your neighborhood and write for special rates. It's cheaper than living at home. Spend the hot, sultry weeks at Cumberland, where the ocean breezes blow For information and full particulars write L. A. EX-SLAVE CUTS HIS THROAT.

Perry Sanford Saw Michigan Invaded by Armed Kentuckians.

Battle Creek, Mich., May 8.—Perry Sandford, the oldest colored citizen of this city attempted to commit suicide last night at Nichols hospital by cutting his throat with a jack knife.

Five months ago Sandford became paralyzed on his right side, and was taken to the hospital. It took him over an hour to open his knife with left hand and his teeth. He cut a gash 4 inches long on the left side of his throat, but was discovered in the act by a nurse and was disarmed. He will probably die.

Sandford is the last surviving witness of the invasion of this state in 1848 by armed Kentuckians who forcibly attempted to capture a fugitive slave at the famous Quaker settlement in Cass county. The failure of this invasion and the subsequent excitement throughout the southern states resulted in the passage of the fugitive slave law by congress.

SSS FOR THE BLOOD

"S. S. S. for the blood" has grown to be a household saying. When the blood is out of order, or needs treatment from any cause, this great remedy is the first thought of and used by thousands of people all over the country, because it is superior to all other blood purifiers. It is a purely vegetable remedy, and while it penetrates the circulation and forces out all poison and morbid matter, it also builds up the entire system by its fine tonic effect. During the winter months the natural avenues of bodily waste have become dull and weak and failed to perform their full duty, the blood has been sluggish and an extra amount of poisons and waste matters have accumulated in the system and been absorbed by it. With the coming of Spring and warm weather the blood is aroused and stirred to quicker action and in its effort to throw off these acids and poisons the skin suffers. Boils, pimples, blotches, rashes and eruptions break out and continue until the blood is cleansed and made pure. S. S. S. is the ideal remedy for this condition; it clears the blood of all impurities, makes it rich and strong and these skin troubles pass away. Rheumatism, Catarrh, Chronic Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison and all other diseases of the blood are cured by S. S. S. Book on the blood and any advice desired, free of charge. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

I was suffering from impure blood and a general run-down condition of the system. I had no appetite, was losing flesh, and an all-gone tired feeling that made me miserable. I began the use of S. S. S. and my blood was restored to its normal, healthy condition. My appetite returned, I increased in weight, that "tired feeling" left and I was again myself.

WOODBRIDGE ENTERTAINED.

William Butler Woodbridge, vice president and director of agencies of the Columbia Insurance Company, who has been at the Piedmont for several days, left yesterday for St. Louis.

Mr. Woodbridge said that he was much pleased with the outlook for the southern department. He attended the first annual dinner of this department at the Kimball house Friday night, at which he outlined the plans of his organization for this section. He said that he appreciated the cooperation of Messrs. Frank Hawkins, Charles E. Currier and Preston Arkwright, local directors of the company, in assisting in organizing locally and that Atlanta had been selected as headquarters over all other southern cities.

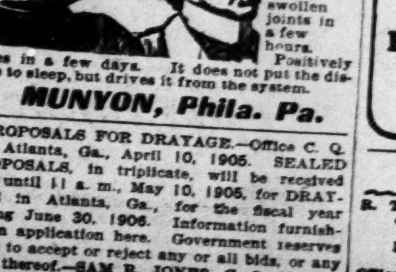

Among those who participated in the discussion were: Mr. Woodbridge, James Westervelt, of New York, counsel for the Columbian; Mr. Hawkins, Mr. Currier, Mr. Albert Howell, John Grant, Judge George Hillyer, T. D. Stewart, Harry J. Chapin, Field Superintendent for the Columbian Alfred C. Newell, manager of the southern department.

GEORGIA OUTPOINTS EMORY AND THE TECH

BARRON AND HEARN,
Two of Emory's Athletes Who Took Part in Yesterday's Field Meet.

Slow and Tiresome Field Meet Won by Team From Athens.

EMORY BOYS PROVE LIVELY COMPETITORS

A Feature of the Day Was the Fine Work of Lipshutz, of Tech in the Dashes—Made the Short Dash in the Fast Time of 10 1-5.

The red and the black of the University of Georgia was the victor yesterday afternoon in the big state track meet held at Exposition park for the championship of Georgia—Georgia, Emory and Tech being the three teams fighting it out.

By a display of rare work in the pinches, Georgia won. Her victory was due to the "never give up" spirit of the Georgia men, who knowing that they were beaten on paper by the Emory athletes, fought all the harder to show the folly of trying to judge the finish of a match by comparative records.

Time and time again yesterday afternoon it appeared that Georgia was hopelessly beaten, and at times her friends and suporters admitted defeat. Not so with the Georgia men, who were in the fight.

The final score was as follows: Georgia, 47; Emory, 39, and Tech, 22.

From a managerial standpoint, the field sports were a failure. In the first place, the meet was not properly advertised, and as a result the crowd at the park could have been counted by any one desiring that kind of exercise.

In the second place, the meet began at 2:30 o'clock, and those unfortunate to stay to the finish reached town at 8 o'clock last night.

This is the one feature of field sports which has prevented it from becoming popular. In every meet held in the south, and in Atlanta especially, the interest has been allowed to drag by the dilatoriness with which the events are pulled off.

The meet should have been over by 6 o'clock at least. There were few spectators present when the finish came. The mile run was started at 7:30 o'clock, or possibly a little later. It would have been easy in that race for a dozen fouls to have been committed, as no one could see what was happening.

All the preliminaries should be pulled off in the morning, thus allowing the people to see the finishes in the afternoon, and even the finish would take long enough. The qualification rounds in the hammer throw, pole vaults, the shot put and the broad jump could be held in the morning, and the afternoon events would thus be made snappier and more interesting.

Lipshutz Was the Star.

Tech made a much better fight than she was expected to by her own students. Lipshutz, of Tech, was the star of the old gold and white. He won two first events, coming in ahead in the 100-yard dash and in the 440-yard run, and second in the 220-yard dash. Captain Maclean, of Tech, pushed Cohen closely in the 220-yard hurdles and was given second place by the judges.

In the shot put Sage, of Georgia, won out near the finish, after being seemingly beaten by the Emory representative. His greatest surprise handed to his opponents, however, came in the hammer throw.

Sage wears tennis shoes in his work, and he felt badly handicapped by the nature of the ring, which was on grass, and slippery from the rain. He would start to throw the hammer, and then slip at the crucial moment, thus failing to accomplish anything in this line. Up to the very last throw Hearn, of Emory, and Gregg, of Tech, had Sage beaten. On his last throw, however, the Georgia boy put all his energies in one throw and tossed the weight over 98 feet, winning easily.

Barron, of Emory, was an easy winner in the broad jump, getting in a 20-foot leap, while Johnson, of Emory, had easy picking in the pole vault, going just 8 feet 9 inches. The other vaulters balked at this height, and had to fight it out, lower down, Kelly, of Georgia, winning second place.

Dancy, of Georgia, was the winner in the 1-2 mile run by a great spurt at the finish, after being led by Davenport, of the Tech, for a great part of the distance. Davenport weakened in the finish.

Georgia practically won the meet by the work of her men in the high jump. The score was very close, and it looked to many as if Georgia would be beaten by the boys from Oxford. Kelly, of Georgia, however, shattered these illusions by winning the high jump, while Strickland, of Georgia, and Johnson, of Emory, tied for second.

The results of the meet, the winners being placed in the order in which they came, follows:

100-yard dash: Lipshutz, of Tech; Barron, of Emory, and Kelly, of Georgia. Time, 10 1-5 seconds.

Shot put: Sage, of Georgia, first; Hearn, of Emory, second, and Gregg, of Tech, third. Distance, 32 feet 6 inches.

220-yard dash: Barron, of Emory, first; Lipshutz, of Tech, second; Smith, of Georgia, third. Time, 22.4 seconds.

220-yard hurdles: Cohen, of Georgia, first; Maclean, of Tech, second, and Bush, of Emory, third. Time, 28 2-5 seconds.

Hammer throw: Sage, of Georgia, first; Hearn, of Emory, second, and Gregg, of Tech, third. Distance, 98 feet 3 inches.

Broad jump: Barron, of Emory, first; Johnson, of Emory, second, and Kelly, of Georgia, third. Distance, 20.3 feet.

440-yard dash: Lipshutz, of Tech first; McCaffrey, of Georgia, second, and Branch, of Georgia, third. Time, :57 1-5 seconds.

Pole vault: Johnson, of Emery, first; Kelly, of Georgia, second, and Goodier, of Tech, Third. Height, 8 feet 9 inches.

Half mile: Dancy, of Georgia, first; Davenport, of Tech, second, and Hutchinson, of Emory, third. Time, 2 minutes 14 2-5 seconds.

High hurdles: Dorsey, of Georgia, first, and Cohen, of Georgia, and Bush, of Emory, tied for second. Time, 18 3-5 seconds.

High jump: Kelly, of Georgia, first, and Strickland, of Georgia, and Johnson, of Emory, tied for second. Height, 5 feet 4 inches.

One-mile run: Blaylock, of Emory, first; Woods, of Georgia, second, and Dewar, of Emory, third.

PARTY LEAVES WEDNESDAY NIGHT

They Go To Look Over a New Summer and Winter Resort.

During the past few days there has been considerable talk about the new town, Lanark-on-theGulf. It will be remembered that this new town is on the Georgia, Florida and Alabama railroad, and is located within a few yards of the Gulf of Mexico. It is about the same latitude as St. Augustine and can be made one of the most delightful summer and winter resorts in America. Within a few miles of Lanark-on-the-Gulf is Carrabelle. Carrabelle is to be the business center of that section, while Lanark-on-the-Gulf will be the fashionable summer, as well as winter, resort.

A party of gentlemen will go down to Lanark-on-the-Gulf Wednesday, leaving Atlanta late in the evening. This will be a trip that will be pleasing to many of the leading citzens of Atlanta, and from the present indications there will be quite a large party. By the way, all who expect to go will please notify M. L. Thrower, corner Walton and Forsyth streets, so he can make arrangements for sleeper accommodations. Give this information before 12 o'clock noon Wednesday. In fact, the sooner you give it, the better. It is quite probable that on the return of the party they will have many new fishing and hunting stories to tell.

The Delineator for June.

A striking cover, in the form of a girl's head in pastel by George Gibbs, introduces the reader of the June Delineator to a varied and interesting table of contents, supplemented by a complete summary of the season's styles and the latest news from the world of fashion. In the literary portion of the magazine, Weymer Jay Mills contributes the first of a series of "Romances of Summer Resorts," which promise much of interest, pictorially and otherwise. A noteworthy feature also is F. Berkeley Smith's description of "A Corner in Normandy," an enjoyable travel sketch that gives more than a passing glance at one of the most curious nooks in the Old World. For the benefit of those who have the collecting instinct, N. Hudson Moore writes on old glass, in "The Collector's Manual," and Dr. Murray discusses the care of children. Newman's hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light," is the subject of a paper by Allan Sutherland in the series "Famous Hymns of the World." In the matter of fiction, Albert Bigelow Paine's serial, "The Lucky Piece," proceeds along pleasing lines and Helen Choate Prince contributes a short story of great strength and charm. Grace MacGowan Cooke adds a chapter, in the amusing history of Son Riley Rabbit, and L. Frank Baum gives an animal fairy tale, called "The Pea-Green Poodle," both of which will not fail to delight the little folks. In addition, there are house plans and house furnishing ideas, and many pages devoted to the particular interests of the home, including, among other features, a paper on "The Practical Side of the Wedding," and a variety of suggestions for kitchen economy.

Morgan Buys Erie Stock.

New York, May 8.—It was reported in the financial district today that over 40 per cent of the common stock of the Erie Railroad Company had been purchased through J. P. Morgan & Company and would be turned over in equal parts, to the Lake Shore and to the Baltimore and Ohio, in order to assure the future of the Erie control lying in friendly hands.

"Moravian Damask"

Oberleithner & Sons
Mahr-Schoenberg, Austria.

We are sole agents for Atlanta and have a most complete stock, the new designs being added as they come out.

A Magnificent Design In Moravian Damask—

The Waterlily

The Waterlily (nymphea Alba) is produced with such marked effect, that the beautiful blossoms actually appear as if floating on the water. The Damask is rich, satiny and soft, and in its entirety this cloth is a masterpiece of the weaver's skill.
Size 2x2 yards for round or square tables .. .. $6.00 each
Size 2 1-4x2 1-4 yards for round or square tables .. .. .. $7.50 each
Size 2 1-2x2 1-2 yards, for round or square tables .. .. .. $9.00 each
27-inch Napkins to match.
Other swell designs are George I, Louis XV, Corinthian Achantus, Empire Scroll, American Beauty, Marechal Niel, etc., etc.

One of the Very Latest

The Maiden Hair Fern—(Adiantum Capillus—Veneris). The small delicate bi-pinnate fronds of this most graceful of plants formed a theme for the artist and a task for the weaver, resulting in a triumph for both.

STATE CONCLAVE AT MACON.

Sir Knights of Two Local Commanderies Will Attend in Force.

The annual conclave of the grand commandery of Knights Templars of Georgia will be opened in Macon tomorrow morning, Right Eminent Sir William Schweigert, grand commander, presiding.

There will be a large concourse of Sir Knights and their ladies present. The members of Couer deLeon and Atlanta commanderies will leave for Macon Wednesday morning, at 5:50 o'clock, to participate in the ceremones. The train will reach Macon about 9 o'clock, and will be met at the depot by a detachment of Sir Knights of St. Omer commandery and escorted to grand commandery headquarters, where the parade will be formed, and the grand commander escorted to the asylum, where the grand commandery will be opened. On Wednesday evening the liturgy of the order will be recited at the church.

SOLD GOODS FROM WRECK.

Merchant Arrested for Failing To Pay Special License.

The city license inspector has made a case against Morris Jacobs, for violating the tax ordinance by selling a lot of goods, supposed to be from a wreckage, without securing a yearly license of $200.

This is the first case made under that section of the tax ordinance. Several months ago the merchants kicked about venders being allowed to come to Atlanta and sell goods by advertising them as out of a fire or a railroad wreck. Only a small license was charged and the merchants complained that it was an unjust discrimination. The city council thereupon passed an ordinance charging venders of goods from fires and wrecks a license of $200 and not allowing any license for less than a year.

Morris Jacobs stocked a store at No. 235 Peters street with a lot of clothing and he issued dodgers announcing that the goods were from four railroad wrecks and would be sold at great "sacrifice prices." He sold a lot of goods Saturday and yesterday morning License Inspector Hubbard pounced down upon him and had him in the recorder's court.

Morris admitted selling the goods, but said he had a license to run a store and did not know of the fire and wreck law.

On motion of Jacob's attorney, the case was postponed until Thursday afternoon.

File Charter for New Line.

New Orleans, May 8.—The Colorado Southern, New Orleans and Pacific filed a charter here today to build a railroad from New Orleans to connect with the Colorado Southern and thence to the Pacific. The charter bears the names of local directory, but gives no inkling as to the real backers of the plan.

BEN KOEHLER SECOND IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

Suppose somebody slapped you on the back and told you that Ben Koehler, our Ben, was doing the batting honors of the American League?

Wouldn't it make you grin?

Three weeks ago the locals could have had Ben back for a pittance. If you tried to buy him up now they would laugh at you. The truth of the business is, Ben is setting the grass on fire. He has played Van Zant out of his place in the St. Louis outfield, while the latest returns credit him with a batting average of .391, second best in the league. The Republican, of St. Louis, remarks:

"Koehler, the young man who didn't look good enough for St. Louis in the spring practice, is now the second batsman in the league."

Of such is fame. The mighty Larry, of Larrupville, is lost in the dust of the road. He tried for a time to follow Ben's pace, but soon dropped by the wayside.

Here's to Ben and his batting average, may they both live long and prosperous

Incidentally the American League returns indicate that Punch Knoll, formerly of Nashville, is hitting well in the Washington outfield, and that your Uncle Newt will never again have the honor of paying him his salary. Knoll is not only hitting some, but he has cultivated the habit of hitting at the right time, which is more to the point.

McKnight, the high school boy, who one day wandered into Athletic park in Philadelphia and got a trial at shortstop because Connie Mack occasionally likes a joke, has chased Monte Cross out of his job. The youth is hitting at .354, and in a recent conversation with his manager promised to do better in future.

NEW ORLEANS AND LIVERPOOL FIRM

Forecast Called for Unsettled Weather in Cotton Belt.

Wall Street Bulls Supported the Market, Influences Making for an Advance of 15 to 20 Points and a Very Steady Closing.

New York, May 8.—The cotton market showed considerable excitement owing to strong bull support and active covering, particularly nearby shorts. The close was about 4 points down from the top on May, but well up to the best on other positions. The market opened steady at an advance of 1@4 points, and in spite of rather indifferent early cables showed firmness almost from the start, owing to numerous reports claiming too much rain and a poor crop outlook in important sections of the belt. While local bears claimed that the official weather reports were not unsatisfactory, they were plainly uneasy owing to the strong showing by New Orleans and Wall street bull support, and with hardly a reaction the market worked higher, until in the afternoon May cotton was selling around 7.73 or a net advance of 24 points, while the later months were about 18 to 19 points net higher. The close was very steady at a net gain of 15@20 points. Sales futures were estimated at 350,000 bales. Private reports of firm spot markets in the south and large exports, showing the big demand from abroad, were factors in the advance. According to other reports, southern spot markets were 1-16 to ⅛c higher. The local spot market was 20 point higher.

The New Orleans Market.

New Orleans, May 8.—Spot cotton quiet but firm. Sales 1,650 bales, including 350 to arrive and 100 f.o.b. afloat. Quotations advanced ⅛c.

Futures opened firm with prices 6 to 8 points higher than Saturday's closing on unsatisfactory weather conditions. Expectations of an unfavorable weekly crop summary and a bad weather forecast for the entire belt tonight and tomorrow strengthens the market. Short liquidationand long buying continued well through the session. Shreveport wired that crop conditions could hardly be worse. Floods in the Sabine valley and recent storms have done much damage. Reports from Tyler, Tex., were to the effect there were boll weevil in the black land of Williamson county. Many young weevils have also been found in Lee county. In the trading May opened up 7 points at 7.55, eased off a point, and then advanced to 7.70. July opened 7 points up at 7.47, advanced to 7.64, and declined to 7.62. The market closed firm, with net gains of 21@24 points.

The Dry Goods Market.

New York, May 8.—The week in the dry goods market opened quietly. The tone, however, was firm all around. The chief event today was the announcement of the fall prices for carpets and rugs. Contrary to expectations no radical advances have been made. A few lines of carpets were to 2½ cents dearer, but the majority are unchanged, while rugs are generally lower, the reduction amounting to over a dollar in certain cases.

COTTON—The cotton future market was firm in tone today and the trade was quite active at times. There was some extensive buying for the account of southern shorts, and consequently there were rumors of unfavorable crop developments. There was talk of possible war between England and France and this seemed to create an increase in the foreign demand. However, on the better levels there was some selling pressure, but the level of values was pretty well supported for the most part. The indications pointed to a continued feverish and rather professional market for some days to come. Theodore Price's brokers were in all parts of the ring at the opening and were taking everything in sight. Our market opened about unchanged, but turned upward and advanced steadily, closing at the highest, net 15 to 20 points above the opening. The weather conditions throughout the belt was unfavorable, rains in some important sections being heavy. We would not be surprised to see a further advance of 20 points before a reaction of very much importance.

WHEAT—There was a fair trade in the wheat market today. It was well distributed on both sides of the account, but some of the larger forces still displayed an inclination to work for scalping profits pending more definite information with regard to the exact market position of the Armour forces. The weather and crop information was favorable in the main, and the preliminary figures suggested a bearish crop report. However, there was some good buying of July wheat, and at times there was a firm tone.

The coarser grains were steady with a little buying which served to advance prices at times. The trade was not very active and the local professional crowd figured for the bulk of the business. The conditions affecting both corn and oats were not necessarily changed from last week.

The provision market was steady and quiet with a narrow business, largely attributed to professional interests.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

COTTON—Heavy rains west of the Mississippi yesterday led to the buying which has been in evidence since the opening of the market. This buying is based upon the expectation of a poor weekly report from the government tomorrow, and has good basis for that belief in the recent unfavorable weather in Arkansas. Warm, clear weather is needed throughout the southwest to put the crop in good condition. Sentiment is much more favorable to the market as a result of these rains than for several weeks. The old bears are now in evidence as leading the advance, and there is not the slightest disposition to look for a reaction. Receipts are heavy, but are an old story, and no attention will be paid to any factor, but the weather. The spot market was quiet at 20 points advance.

Ware & Leland.

COTTON—The market was bought in all directions today on bad crop accounts from the south. The heavy rains have so delayed planting and given weeds such a start that every one was discouraged and shorts covered freely on the news. The outside demand was not liberal, but professionals were active on the buying side, and there was not opposition to the rise. The price of cotton is so low that it is a rather serious business selling short. Operators are beginning to find this out, and the majority are now getting on the buying side on all breaks. The weather map today was all that could be desired, and the outlook was much better than a week ago. But crop accounts were so bad that the present weather had little weight with buyers, and prices ran up more than they have in some time. The market seemed to be rather different from what we have been having. It was not ready to go up before. There were too many against it. Now traders are willing to buy it, and as long as this keeps up we will have an advancing market. If we do not have better crop accounts the market will advance sharply.

WHEAT—There was a rush to buy at the start, due to decline in consols and other foreign securities arising from complications abroad, frightening a number of shorts who were alarmed by strength in July. Armour sold that month and bought September, while there was quite a large trade in May, one of the old cliques selling largely with offerings absorbed by an elevator concern and foreign houses. The big decrease in the visible was a surprise, and caused bullish sentiment with more disposition shown to take on long wheat, some of the buying being due to what is regarded as a strong cash situation, and in addition taking chances on the political situation abroad becoming more grave. Our advices indicate that cutting of wheat will be begun within two weeks through the panhandle of Texas and in central Illinois by June 10. Sentiment is bullish enough ao allow of further advances, and it is causing conservatism on the part of many operators who are bearishly inclined.

CORN—The strength in wheat started shorts to covering, although weather conditions were good, but May was congested and with its advance July worked up in sympathy. The closing was strong, and extra efforts will be used to force stubborn shorts to cover. It looks very much as if the new rule admitting No. 3 grades with a penalty attached to fill contracts will carry by a large majority.

OATS—Prices were bid up in sympathy with wheat and corn, advices being of a nature to force shorts to cover. This action of oats was disappointing to the bull contingent, crop prospects were of the finest and toward tne close the market turned very heavy, and we think should be sold on all hard spots.

PROVISIONS—There was selling early on the big receipts, but the strength in grain and support attended by packers with Cudahys leading caused a better tone with declines all recovered. The undertone to the market is a strong one.

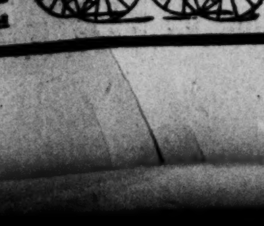

STOCKS—Tone of English press regarding the protest of Japan in connection with neutrality of France caused weakness, principally in Americans. Our market showed material weakness with the result that sharp declines were in order through the list, but after the selling for London account was ended the market became extremely dull and fluctuated back and forward within a radius of from ⅛ to ¾ of a point, and it was not until toward the close that any tendency was shown one way or the other, but at this time on account of the limited offerings of stock, a few traders attempted to cover some of their short lines and in doing so bid up the market about 1 per cent. There is absolutely no feature to the market, and we cannot see where there is going to be anything but a traders' market for some time to come.

FACTORS IN WHEAT WERE BULLISH

Demand Active on Fears of Fresh War Complications.

Wheat for July Delivery Closed 1 1-8c Higher—Corn Closed Firm with July 1-4 to 3-8c Up. Oats and Provisions Higher.

Chicago, May 8.—Damage reports from many sections of the winter wheat belt constituted one of the most vital reasons for a strong wheat market here today. Possible spread of war complications and a decrease of over 2,000,000 bushels in the visible supply helped along the advance. At the close, July wheat was up 1 1-8c. Corn is up 1-4@3-8. Oats and provisions are practically unchanged.

The wheat market was strong from start to finish. As the opening July was up 1-4@3-8c at 83 1-8@83 1-4c. Shorts were active bidders, but offerings were light. The main influence at first was fear that France and England might become involved in the Russo-Japanese war. Other bullish factors of a much more definite and potent character developed as the session advanced. A variety of damage reports were received. Some of these advices told of damage by rust in Missouri and Illinois; others told of damage by Hessian fly in Nebraska, and still others of a lack of rain in Kansas. An advance of 9c a bushels in the price of wheat at Budapest during the past few days was said to be due to a drought in the Danubian provinces. This furnished additional incentive throughout the session, but demand far exceeded the supply. In consequence, prices steadily advanced. The climax to the bullish situation was capped by a statement of the available stocks of wheat in the United States. The statement showed a decrease of 2,194,000 bushels in the visible. The highest point of the day for July was reached at 84 1-4c. The market closed strong with July at 84c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 55,100 bushels. Primary receipts were 198,200 bushels, compared with 198,800 a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 155 cars, against 253 last week and 158 a year ago.

An active demand for corn to be shipped to Missouri for feeding purposes was the principal cause of a strong corn market. The advance in wheat, however, exerted considerable influence. Shorts were to the best buyers. July opened 1-8@1-4c higher at 47 1-8@47 1-4, sold up to 47 1-2c and closed at 47 3-8c. Receipts 89 cars, with one of contract grade.

Strength of wheat and corn imparted a steady tone to the oats market. Business was quiet, there being little selling pressure. July opened unchanged at 29 1-4c, sold up to 29 1-2c and closed at 29 1-4c. Receipts 82 cars.

Considering a decline of 10 to 15c in the price of live hogs, the provisions market was quite firm. Prices were a trifle lower early in the session on selling by pit traders, who were influenced by the liberal receipts of hogs. The market, however, received good support from packers, and as a result all of the loss was regained. As the close, July pork was up 2 1-2c, at $12.32 1-2. Lard and ribs unchanged at $7.32 1-2 and $7.27 1-2.

The Cotton Situation.

New York, May 8.—Spinners' taking of American cotton last week were 266,000 bales; for the last ten weeks they have averaged 259,000. If for the balance of the season they average only 200,000 bales, the total takings will exceed 12,500,000 bales. British board of trade returns show that for the two months of March and April exports of cotton manufacturers from Great Britain exceed last year 33 per cent. The New York Commercial, in its report on the dry goods market today, says: "The great jobbing sales that closed Saturday afternoon were pronounced success. Mills are busy on orders and the shipments that are being made for export are growing larger. With the cotton goods market growing stronger and the range of prices on goods to arrive reaching higher levels, the buying contingent is being heard from in a way that clearly indicates that secondary supplies are low," meantime the crop grows worse and later, instead of improving. Ten inches of rain is reported today from some points in Texas and the Brazos river is rapidly reaching an overflow level; we shall doubtless hear from the Misssissippi later. The crop through the belt is badly in grass. Even money to a large amount was to my personal knowledged wagered here today that the next crop would not exceed 11,000,000 bales. With the general recognition of existing conditions sure to come I look for a buying movement shortly, the immensity of which will be in proportion to the trade now in progress and under contract.

CHOICE SUBURBAN PROPERTY.

BEST of Atlanta's suburbs at one-half price for the next thirty days. See me at once. Bell phone 2071. J. R. Mell, 507 Gould building.

FAVER & BLACK,

Real Estate Agents, No. 308 Peters Bldg. Both 'Phones No. 3519.

$24,000—Will purchase 100 feet on Whitehall, only partially improved, bringing a rental of $1,700; splendid; buy to hold.

$3,750—For lot on Peachtree, 50x300, faces east, lays splendidly, one-half block of Dr. Noble's new house; for information, see us. Don't 'phone. Terms can be made.

$8,000—Peachtree road, near the Gray home, 9-room house, 23 1-2 acres of land. If you don't think it is cheap, don't buy.

WE HAVE some $100 cash and $25 per month propositions which are worth looking into on home plan. We are frank to say he who buys on this plan must expect to pay shade more than he would for cash. It's for you to decide which is best for you. Never own anything, or acquire it in this way.

$1,000—Will buy cottage in West End, $300 cash and $25 per month, 7 rooms, lot 50x200. This is a bargain.

$4,000—Buys an elegant 10-room home on Capitol ave., lot 50x150, can make terms. Owner very anxious for quick sale. Price reduced from $5,500.

$10,500—Will purchase a suburban home on West Hunter road, near car line; has splendid residence, elegant oaks, well fruited with 30 bearing pecans, variety of small fruits; 24 acres of land, close enough in for sub-division; has prospects for manufacturing inasmuch as the railroad owns adjoining lands. We are prepared to show more value than the price asked. We think well enough of it to advertise.

N. B.—We are not "bulls" on real estate. It's not for our best interest to have prices abnormally high. We know from experience that inflation is bad for all, with present conditions and what we believe to be good signs ahead. We have a few very central propositions in which we can prove you can make mony. If interested in central property, would appreciate a call.

8 HOLLYWOOD CEMETERY lots can be bought for $20 each. This is about half what the company sells them at.

GEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY.—To the Superior Court of Said County: The petition of H. B. Downing and Henry W. Grady, both of Fulton county, Georgia, shows:

1. That they, their associates, successors and assigns desire to be incorporated for a period of twenty years with the privilege of renewal at the end of that time, under the corporate name and style of Atlanta Barrel and Keg Company.

2. The head office and place of business shall be in Fulton county, Georgia, but the petitioners desire the right to establish branch plants and offices anywhere in this state or in the United States.

3. The object and purpose of the said company is pecuniary gain to the incorporators and stockholders.

4. The particular business which your petitioners desire to carry on is the making and manufacturing of hogsheads, barrels, kegs, boxes, and any and all other receptacles for holding liquids or other things, and any and all other things usually manufactured in a cooperage plant, including ties, staves, heading, hoops.

5. The petitioners desire the right to buy and sell timber, lumber and timber lands, and the right to make contracts and leases of every kind in reference to property, real, personal or mixed, including timber leases, contracts and privileges, and to sell or lease, erect or operate saw mills and saw mill machinery in connection with their cooperage business or otherwise.

6. They desire the right to contract and be contracted with, to sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded with, to own property of all descriptions to convey, lease and mortgage, or in otherwise dispose of any of their property, to have and use a corporate seal, to make by-laws and do all acts and things and to have all the powers incident to corporations under the laws of this state.

7. The petitioners desire the right to lend and borrow money in connection with their business as may be necessary, and to own or lease any real or personal property in their corporate name.

8. The petitioners show the capital stock of said corporation shall be the sum of twenty-five thousand ($25,000) dollars, divided into two hundred and fifty (250) shares of one hundred ($100) dollars each, and the petitioners show that all of the said capital stock will be paid in before the business of the corporation is begun. The petitioners pray for the right to increase their capital stock at any time to an amount not to exceed one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars. The petitioners pray for the right to pay for the stock subscribed for in money or property at a fair valuation and for all other rights, remedies, privileges and immunities enjoyed by other corporations of like kind under the laws of Georgia.

JACKSON & ORME,
Attorneys for Petitioners.

PRICES FELL ON FOREIGN SELLING

The Break Was in a Decidedly Weak Manner.

Lower Quotations Than at the Extreme Low Level of Last Week Were Shown in a Number of Instances—Close Was Barely Steady.

New York, May 8.—Measured by the effects in the New York stock market the tension between Great Britain and France over the preservation of neutrality in the Far East must be acute. Measured by any other business index there does not seem to be serious apprehension of any rupture between those two powers. It is true that the selling of stocks in New York, which carried prices downward, was mostly for foreign account, but the volume of it was not impressive and the real effect on prices must be attributed in large part to the continued doubt felt toward the market by operators of any considerable power or influence. Prices of stocks broke in a decidedly weak manner, a number of instances showing lower quotations than at the extreme low level of last week. Pacifics, southwesterns and southerns were most affected among the railroads, and the iron and steel stocks were conspicuous among the industrials. The selling, although moderate, was very well distributed, and no part of the list escaped entirely the prevailing weakness. The result seems conclusive of the failure of the considerable reduction in prices which have already taken place to attract any effective demand. The market was narrow and obviously largely in professional hands, as indicated by the large volume of the transactions both on the decline and on the rally. When the operations for foreign account had been concluded for the day the supply of stocks proved scanty for the needs of the shorts. The indifference of the demand again showed itself at the recovered level of prices and they were but poorly held so that the closing was barely steady.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $1,980,000.

United States bonds were all unchanged on call.

Money on call steady at 1 1-2@ 2 3-4, closing bid 2 1-2; offered at 2 3-4; time money steady; 60 and 90 days 3 1-4; six months 3 1-2@3 3-4; prime mercantile 3 3-4@4 1-2 per cent.

Sterling exchange strong, closing steady with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.86.70@4.86.75 for demand and at $4.84.65@4.84.75 for 60 day bills; posted rates $4.85 1-2@4.87 1-2; commercial bills $4.84 3-8@4.84 1-2.

Government bonds steady.

Railroad bonds irregular.

The Treasury Statement.

Cincinnati, May 8.—Provisions steady. Lard $6.70. Bulk meats $6.87 1-2. Bacon $8.00.

Coffee and Sugar.

New York, May 8.—The market for coffee futures opened steady at unchanged prices and ruled generally quiet. There was nothing in the news to indicate any change in general conditions, which continued favorable, according to bull operators, owing to light Brazilian receipts and full ware house deliveries. There was comparatively little snap to the demand, however, and after working up a partial 5 points from the opening figures the market showed little feature, closing steady on that basis; sales 22,000 bags; July 6.90; September 7.05@7.15; December 7.35@7.40; January 7.40; March 7.45. Coffee, spot Rio steady; No. 7 invoice 8; mild steady; Cordova 10@13.

New Orleans, May 8.—Sugar quiet; open kettle 3 3-4@4 1-4; open kettle centrifugal 4 1-8@4 15-16; centrifugal whites 5 1-2; yellows 4 3-4@5 5-16; seconds 3 11-16@4 1-2. Molasses nominal; open kettle 13@26; centrifugal 6@14. Sirup nominal at 30.

The Metal Market.

New York, May 8.—The tin market higher in London; spot £136; futures unchanged £133 17s 6d. Locally quiet at 29.80@30.10.

Copper firmer in London at £65 7s 6d for spot and £65 11s 3d for futures. Locally nominal; lake and electrolytic 12.00@15.00; casting 14.50@15.00.

Lead unchanged at £12 12s 6d in London and 4.50@4.60 locally.

Terrific Race with Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at all drug stores; price 50c.

Rifle Club's Jubilee.

Charleston, S. C., May 8.—The golden jubilee of the German Rifle Club, the oldest of its kind in the United States, opened today. Visiting delegations from New York clubs and parties from Augusta and Jacksonville are expected. The celebration will continue throughout the week.

THEATERS.

The Bijou.

There have been melodramas and melodramas at the Bijou this season. Some of them have toed the mark of excellence, some have not come quite to that mark, while others could only be placed in the medium grade. Last night an audience that measured up to the usual opening night, took a look at Blaney's idea of "A Factory Girl." And Mr. and Mrs. Audience gave the idea a hearty indorsement.

The play is one of those regular Blaney melodramas of the excellent class. It is full of sensation, crowded on thrills, with a nice wholesome vein of comedy, and just enough pathos to round out a play that is interesting to a degree.

And the company is well balanced. The leading people are clever, while the minors are better than the average fillers in.

The story is along the usual line, free from anything objectionable, and quite the sort of attraction to hold interest.

This is the attraction that is to close the regular Bijou season. It will be presented at the usual schedule of performances, and as it scored a solid hit last night, there will be the usual Bijou business during the rest of the engagement.

A musical comedy brimful of catchy music, pretty girls, clever dancing and up-to-date vaudeville acts, will be the opening attraction for the Casino, commencing next Monday night. Billy Single Clifford, the popular comedian and all-round entertainer, will appear at the head of a big musical comedy company, surrounded by a bevy of as pretty girls as one would care to see.

Every theatergoer remembers Billy Clifford, and the announcement that he will visit Atlanta again and present his comedy success, "How He Won Her," will be received with real pleasure by amusement seekers.

The Casino theater has been painted and freshened and there is every indication that the summer season, which will commence next Monday, will be the most successful in the history of the summer theater. Certain it is that a lively pace is being set with the opening attraction, and if those that follow are half as good, then the theatergoer will have cause for congratulation.

The sale of seats will commence Friday morning at the Bijou box office, and those who would get choice seats for the opening night are advised to get their reservations in at an early date.

Matinees will be given this summer at the Casino on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

BEEF COMBINE BEING PROBED

Governor Terrell Is Asked to Aid in Furnishing Evidence.

Governor Terrell received a letter yesterday from C. B. Morrison, of Chicago, United States attorney for the northern district of Illinois, asking him for certain evidence relating to the "beef trust," as an investigation is now in progress to ascertain whether the great meat packing houses of Chicago and other western cities have formed an illegal combination in restraint of trade.

The evidence which Governor Terrell is asked to furnish, and which has probably been asked from the governors of other states, relates to the meat supplies furnished the various state institutions. Mr. Morrison states that he has information which leads him to believe that, while all the packing houses bid on the meat supplies to be furnished to various public institutions, there is an understanding between them by which the lowest bid is given first by one of the packing houses and then by another, and thus they alternate in securing the trade, at the same time excluding all outside competition.

Mr. Morrison has also written to District Attorney E. A. Angier asking him to secure copies of the bids for meat supplies given to Georgia's public institutions for several years past.

Governor Terrell has sent copies of Mr. Morrison's letter to the superintendents of the state sanitarium at Milledgeville, the academy for the deaf at Cave Spring and the academy for the blind at Macon, with the request that they furnish Mr. Morrison any information they may have along this line. He has also notified Mr. Morrison that he has made this disposition of the matter and stated that he would be glad to aid him in any way possible.

SOCIOLOGICAL SOCIETY.

Fourth Annual Session of State Organization Will Be Held Today.

The Georgia Sociological Society meets in the Carnegie Library hall at 2:30 o'clock today in its fourth annual session. It is anticipated by the friends of the society that this will be the largest and most profitable meeting ever held by the society.

SOUTHERN R'Y TAX RETURNS

The annual tax returns of the Southern Railway Company were received yesterday by Comptroller General W. A. Wright, and show an increase over the returns of last year of $171,941, the entire increase being in the physical property return.

There are sixteen divisions of the Southern operated in Georgia, and the total returns from these for 1905 are $12,832,298, as against $12,660,357 for 1904, showing the increase stated.

The Southern's franchise is valued at $2,112,510, the same as last year. The system operates 920 miles in Georgia.

The Alabama Great Southern, which is operated by the Southern, and of which there are about 25 miles in Georgia, makes a total return this year of $473,517, a decrease of about $3,000 as compared with last year. The company's franchise in Georgia is returned at $87,552, the same as last year.

The comptroller general has not yet passed on any of these returns, and will not do so until he has taken them up and considered them in detail. It is not at all unlikely that there will be several arbitrations this year, particularly in the case of the Seaboard Air Line, which showed a falling off of more than $2,500,000.

Vice President A. B. Andrews, of the Southern railway, who has charge of all tax matters connected with that system, called on the comptroller general yesterday for the purpose of discussing with him the Southern's returns.
